

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

TRUSTEES' PREFACE.

THE publication of this revised edition of THE CHRISTIAN HYMNAL has been undertaken in response to a very general desire for such a work, as indicated in the action of the General Christian Missionary Convention, at its session held in Louisville, Ky., October, 1880. A committee appointed at that time to take into consideration the propriety of such a revision, made the following report, which was adopted by the Convention :

1. That we deem the subject of the hymnology of the Church, in its bearing on the development of Christian life and character, to be of the first importance, and, to merit the watchful care of the brotherhood.

2. That we deem it very desirable, as tending to promote unity and fellowship in our worship, to harmonize, as far as possible, our church music, by having the same psalmody in all our churches.

3. That, while we regard our present Hymnal as an excellent compilation of music and sacred poetry, and its general use thus far, in our churches, as highly complimentary to the musical taste and sound judgment of the brethren under whose supervision it was prepared, we, nevertheless, believe that it is necessary, in order to preserve the unity in our hymnology above referred to, and to keep it abreast of the times, that the Committee proceed, at the earliest practicable date, to make such a thorough revision of the same as will, in their judgment, aided by the wisest counsel they can secure, adapt it to the present needs of the brotherhood, and, so far as practicable, place it beyond the reach of just criticism; that while such economy in this revision, as may be in harmony with the necessary improvements, is recommended, in order that any profit arising from its sale may inure to the benefit of the missionary work, such benefit should, in our judgment, be held subordinate to the more important object of producing such a book as will meet the demands of musical worship in our large and growing brotherhood.

J. H. GARRISON, W. K. PENDLETON, L. H. JAMESON, J. W. MCGARVEY, ISAAC ERRETT,	}	Committee.

The trustees immediately announced this action of the Convention through the religious press, and on the 27th of November, 1880, a circular was issued, calling attention to the proposed work, and requesting suggestions as to changes needed, that the character of the revision might be such as to give it as wide an acceptance as possible.

Several hundred copies of this circular were mailed to prominent brethren. There was secured in response a large number of letters advising many changes.

On the 20th of January, 1881, the trustees met to consider these suggestions, and decide what action should be taken to carry into effect (most successfully) the wishes of the brotherhood. Two members of the original editing committee being dead, T. M. Allen and A. S. Hayden; a third, W. T. Moore, being in England, and, therefore, unable to assist in the work; and the engagements of W. K. Pendleton and Isaac Errett, the remaining members of the committee, being such as to prevent their participation, A. I. Hobbs, C. L. Loos, J. S. Lamar, A. R. Benton, and Joseph Franklin were appointed editors, to whom the hymnology of the new book was committed; and J. H. Fillmore, L. H. Jameson, and T. P. Haley were selected to take charge of the music.

The correspondence received by the trustees in answer to their circular was placed in the hands of these committees, and since that time the work has been entirely under their direction.

They have been at great labor and pains to make the production in every respect a superior one.

A considerable sum of money has been expended in procuring new music; and no means have been spared to make as perfect a Hymnal as possible. At the same time, the price has been kept so low as to make it the cheapest publication of the kind in the United States, and cause its general introduction to be as easy and speedy as possible.

In conclusion, the trustees wish to express their confidence in the high character of the work which is presented, and hope that it may meet with the approval of the brotherhood, and that in its use many may find that "it is good to sing praises unto our God."

REVISERS' PREFACE.

THE Revisers of THE CHRISTIAN HYMNAL having completed their work, herewith submit it to the favorable consideration of the Churches of Christ. While we do not presume to claim that it is beyond the reach of adverse criticism, yet we feel confident that it will meet the wants of the Churches for public and social worship, and we trust it will be heartily accepted by them.

Attention is asked to some of its more prominent features.

It will be noticed that the division of the book into general departments has been discarded. At first glance this may seem to be a loss, but careful reflection will show it to be a great gain. It is more than compensated by giving a wider scope for the adaptation of hymns to tunes; by a closer proximity of hymns of the same metre; by locating on facing pages a larger number of tunes and hymns interchangeable; by escaping frequent arbitrary adaptation of hymns to music in one department, which ought to appear in another; and by the analytical index, which has been made quite full, so that hymns on any desired subject may be easily found.

In order to secure a wider range of subjects, we have not confined ourselves to our former collection of hymns, but have introduced, from various sources, many new and valuable ones. A larger number of devotional hymns has been diligently sought for. A number of excellent chants has also been selected. Much care has been taken to secure such a collection as the exigencies of the times demand, and the spiritual needs of the people require.

The number of tunes suitable for congregational and social worship has been greatly enlarged, and, at the same time, we have kept in view the wants of those who desire more difficult music. Many pieces of music retained have been transposed or rearranged where improvement seemed possible.

Several original hymns and tunes have been contributed by persons, who are given due credit, by name, where their contributions appear.

Part II has been compiled with a view to convenient revision, when necessary to bring in valuable new music, or to cast out that which may not stand the test of use—also that it may be published separately, if thought best, in cheap form, for use in protracted meetings and elsewhere. We have here introduced many of the best of the recent popular tunes and hymns.

We have had the benefit of a large and varied correspondence—suggesting what to omit, what to insert—with many helpful criticisms and recommendations. And, although we could not, in every case, adopt them, we have carefully studied to meet the views of the larger number, so as to make the book as widely acceptable as possible. Thanks to all these correspondents, the mention of whom by name would too greatly lengthen this preface.

We also take pleasure in acknowledging our indebtedness to the editors of the former Hymnal, whose labors we inherited.

The importance of general uniformity in our hymns and music, for the maintenance of spiritual unity, can not well be disregarded. We have steadily kept in view congregational singing; therefore, we earnestly entreat all the Churches to supply their pews bountifully with the new Hymnal, that all the people may sing.

Praying God that this book may be a valuable instrument in perfecting His praise, in quickening true worship among His people, and that its sweep of sentiment and song may assist in turning many sinners to the Lord Jesus, we send it forth upon this holy mission.

Be - fore Je - ho - vah's aw - ful throne, Ye na - tions, bow with sa - cred joy;

Know that the Lord is God a - lone; He can cre - ate, and He de - stroy.

1 L. M. ISAAC WATTS.

1 BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne,
Ye nations, bow with sacred joy;
Know that the Lord is God alone;
He can create, and He destroy.

2 His sov'reign pow'r, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and form'd us men;
And when like wand'ring sheep we stray'd,
He brought us to His fold again.

3 We are His people, we His care—
Our souls, and all our mortal frame;
What lasting honors shall we rear,
Almighty Maker, to Thy name?

4 We'll crowd Thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heav'ns our voices raise;
And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill Thy courts with sounding praise.

5 Wide as the world is Thy command!
Vast as eternity Thy love!
Firm as a rock Thy truth shall stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move!

2 L. M. TATE AND BRADY.

1 WITH glory clad, with strength array'd,
The Lord, that o'er all nature reigns,
The world's foundation strongly laid,
And the vast fabric still sustains.

2 How sure establish'd is Thy throne,
Which shall no change or period see!
For Thou, O Lord, and Thou alone,
Art God from all eternity.

3 The floods, O Lord, lift up their voice,
And toss the troubled waves on high;
But God above can still their noise,
And make the angry sea comply.

3 L. M. ISAAC WATTS.

1 FROM all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise;
Let the Redeemer's name be sung
Through every land, by every tongue.

2 Eternal are Thy mercies, Lord;
Eternal truth attends Thy word:
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

1 JEHOVAH reigns; His throne is high;
His robes are light and majesty;
His glory shines with beams so bright,
No mortal can sustain the sight.
2 His terrors keep the world in awe;
His justice guards His holy law;
His love reveals a smiling face;
His truth and promise seal the grace.
3 Thro' all His works His wisdom shines,
And baffles Satan's deep designs;
His pow'r is sov'reign to fulfill
The noblest counsels of His will.
4 And will this glorious Lord descend
To be my Father and my Friend?
Then let my songs with angels' join:
Heaven is secure, if God be mine.

HARRIET AUER.

1 ERE mountains rear'd their forms sublime,
Or heaven and earth in order stood;
Before the birth of ancient time,
From everlasting, Thou art God.
2 A thousand ages, in their flight,
With Thee are as a fleeting day;
Past, present, future, to Thy sight
At once their various scenes display.
3 But our brief life's a shadowy dream—
A passing thought, that soon is o'er—
That fades with morning's earliest beam,
And fills the musing mind no more.
4 To us, O Lord, the wisdom give
Each passing moment so to spend,
That we at length with Thee may live,
Where life and bliss shall never end.

JAMES MONTGOMERY.

1 SERVANTS of God! in joyful lays,
Sing ye the Lord Jehovah's praise;
His glorious name let all adore,
From age to age, for evermore.
2 Who is like God? so great, so high,
He bows Himself to view the sky;
And yet, with condescending grace,
Looks down upon the human race.

3 He hears the uncomplaining moan
Of those who sit and weep alone;
He lifts the mourner from the dust;
In Him the poor may safely trust.
4 O then, aloud, in joyful lays,
Sing to the Lord Jehovah's praise;
His saving name let all adore,
From age to age, forever more.

1 THE heav'n's declare Thy glory, Lord,
In every star Thy wisdom shines;
But when our eyes behold Thy word,
We read Thy name in fairer lines.

2 The rolling sun, the changing light,
And nights and days, Thy pow'r confess;
But the blest volume Thou hast writ,
Reveals Thy justice and Thy grace.

3 Sun, moon, and stars, convey Thy praise
Round the whole earth, and never stand;
So when Thy truth began its race,
It touch'd and glanced on every land.

4 Nor shall Thy spreading gospel rest
Till thro' the world Thy truth has run;
Till Christ has all the nations blest
That see the light or feel the sun.

5 Great Sun of righteousness! arise;
Bless the dark world with heav'nly light:
Thy Gospel makes the simple wise;
Thy laws are pure, Thy judgments right.

6 Thy noblest wonders here we view
In souls renew'd and sins forgiv'n;
Lord! cleanse my sins, my soul renew,
And make Thy word my guide to heav'n.

8 L. M. ISAAC WATTS.

1 HE dies, the friend of sinners dies!
Lo! Salem's daughters weep around!
A solemn darkness veils the skies,
A sudden trembling shakes the ground.

2 Here's love and grief beyond degree!
The Lord of Glory dies for men!
But, lo! what sudden joys we see—
Jesus the dead revives again!

3 The rising Lord forsakes the tomb!
(The tomb in vain forbids His rise!)
Cherubic legions guard Him home,
And shout Him welcome to the skies!

4 Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell
How high our great Deliverer reigns;
Sing how He spoil'd the hosts of hell,
And led the monster Death in chains.

5 Say, "Live forever, wondrous King!
Born to redeem, and strong to save!"
Then ask the monster, "Where's thy sting?
And where thy vict'ry, boasting grave?"

9 L. M. A. C. COXE.

1 How beauteous were the marks divine
That in Thy meekness used to shine,
That lit Thy lonely pathway, trod
In wondrous love, O Son of God!

2 O who like Thee, so calm, so bright,
So pure, so made to live in light?
O who like Thee did ever go
So patient through a world of woe?

3 O who like Thee so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men before?
So meek, forgiving, godlike, high,
So glorious in humility?

4 E'en death, which sets the pris'ner free,
Was pang, and scoff, and scorn to Thee;
Yet love through all Thy torture glow'd
And mercy with Thy life-blood flow'd

5 O in Thy light be mine to go,
Illuming all my way of woe!
And give me ever on the road
To trace Thy footsteps, Son of God!

1 THE spacious firmament on high,
With all the blue ethereal sky,
And spangled heav'ns, a shining frame,
Their great Original proclaim.

2 Th' unwearied sun, from day to day,
Does his Creator's pow'r display,
And publishes to every land
The work of an Almighty Hand.

3 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wondrous tale,
And nightly to the list'ning earth
Repeats the story of her birth:

4 While all the stars that round her burn,
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

5 What though in solemn silence all
Move round this dark, terrestrial ball—
What though no real voice nor sound
Amid their radiant orbs be found—

6 In reason's ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice;
Forever singing as they shine,
The Hand that made us is Divine!

ERE the blue heav'ns were stretch'd abroad,
From everlasting was the Word;
With God He was, the Word was God,
And must divinely be adored.

2 By His own pow'r were all things made;
By Him supported, all things stand;
He is the whole creation's Head,
And angels fly at His command.

3 But, lo! He leaves those heav'nly forms;
The Word descends and dwells in clay,
That He may converse hold with worms,
Dressed in such feeble flesh as they.

To learn new myst'ries here, and tell
The love of our descending God,
The glories of Immanuel.

1 AWAKE, my tongue, thy tribute bring
To Him who gave thee pow'r to sing;
Praise Him who is all praise above,
The source of wisdom and of love.

2 How vast His knowledge! how profound!
A deep where all our thoughts are drown'd;
The stars He numbers, and their names
He gives to all those heav'nly flames.

3 Thro' each bright world above, behold
Ten thousand thousand charms unfold;
Earth, air, and mighty seas combine
To speak His wisdom all divine.

4 But in redemption, O what grace!
Its wonders, O what thought can trace!
Here, wisdom shines forever bright;
Praise Him, my soul, with sweet delight.

14

L. M.

ISAAC WATTS.

1 HAD I the tongues of Greeks and Jews,
And nobler speech than angels use,
If love be absent, I am found,
Like tinkling brass—an empty sound.

2 Were I inspired to preach and tell
All that is done in heav'n and hell,
Or could my faith the world remove,
Still I am nothing without love.

3 Should I distribute all my store
To feed the hungry, clothe the poor,
Or give my body to the flame,
To gain a martyr's glorious name,—

4 If love to God and love to men
Be absent, all my hopes are vain;
Nor tongues, nor gifts, nor fiery zeal,
The work of love can e'er fulfill.

His throne eternal ages stood,
Himself the Ever-living God.

His promise stands forever sure;
And everlasting holiness
Becomes the dwellings of His grace.

And meekly wait the moment when
Thy touch shall make all bright again.

Where I may read, in words of flame,
The glories of Thy wondrous Name.

| 2 Blest be the Father of our Lord, | Faith marked His bright ascent on high. |
| Who from the dead has brought His Son! | And Hope with gladness raised her head. |
| Hope to the lost was then restord, | 5 God's goodness let us bear in mind, |
| And everlasting glory won. | Who to His saints this day has giv'n, |
| 3 Scarce morning twilight had begun | For rest and serious joy design'd, |
| To chase the shades of night away, | To fit us for the bliss of heav'n. |

- 1 YE nations round the earth, rejoice
Before the Lord, your sov'reign King;
Serve Him with cheerful heart and voice;
With all your tongues His glory sing.
- 2 The Lord is God; 'tis He alone
Doth life, and breath, and being give;
We are His work, and not our own:
The sheep that on His pastures live.
- 3 Enter His gates with songs of joy;
With praises to His courts repair;
And make it your divine employ
To pay your thanks and honors there.
- 4 The Lord is good, the Lord is kind;
Great is His grace, His mercy sure;
And the whole race of men shall find
His truth from age to age endure.

- 1 O LOVE beyond conception great,
That form'd the vast, stupendous plan,
Where all divine perfections meet
To reconcile rebellious man!
- 2 There wisdom shines in fullest blaze,
And justice all her right maintains;
Astonished angels stoop to gaze,
While mercy o'er the guilty reigns.
- 3 Yes, mercy reigns, and justice too;
In Christ they both harmonious meet;
He paid to justice all her due,
And now He fills the mercy-seat.

- 1 Be still! be still! for all around,
On either hand, is holy ground;
Here in His house, the Lord, to-day,
Will listen while His people pray.
- 2 Thou, toss'd upon the waves of care,
Ready to sink with deep despair,
Here ask relief with heart sincere,
And thou shalt find that God is here.
- 3 Thou who hast laid within the grave
Those whom thou hadst no pow'r to save,
Now to the mercy-seat draw near,
With all thy woes, for God is here.
- 4 Thou who hast dear ones far away,
In foreign lands, 'mid ocean's spray,
Pray for them now, and dry the tear,
And trust the God who listens here.
- 5 Thou who art mourning o'er thy sin,
Deploring guilt that reigns within,
The God of peace is ever near,
The troubled spirit meets Him here.

Blest are the souls that fear Him still,
And learn submission to His will.

1 On Zion's glorious summit stood
A numerous host, redeem'd by blood;
They hymn'd their King in strains divine;
I heard the song, and strove to join.

2 Here all who suffer'd sword or flame
For truth, or Jesus' lovely name,
Shout vict'ry now, and hail the Lamb,
And bow before the great I AM.

3 While everlasting ages roll,
Eternal love shall feast their soul,
And scenes of bliss forever new
Rise in succession to their view.

4 O sweet employ, to sing and trace
Th' amazing heights and depths of grace;
And spend, from sin and sorrow free,
A blissful, vast eternity!

5 O what a sweet, exalted song,
When every tribe and every tongue,
Redeem'd by blood, with Christ appear,
And join in one full chorus there!

6 My soul anticipates the day—
Would stretch her wings and soar away,
To aid the song, the palm to bear,
And praise my great Redeemer there.

1 THOU art, O God, the life and light
Of all the wondrous world we see;
Its glow by day, its smile by night,
Are but reflections caught from Thee;
Where'er we turn, Thy glories shine,
And all things fair and bright are Thine.

2 When day, with farewell beam, delays
Among the opening clouds of even,
And we can almost think we gaze,
Through opening vistas, into heav'n—
Those hues that mark the sun's decline,
So soft, so radiant, Lord, are Thine.

3 When night, with wings of starry gloom,
O'ershadows all the earth and skies,
Like some dark, beauteous bird, whose plume
Is sparkling with unnumber'd dyes—
That sacred gloom, those fires divine,
So grand, so countless, Lord, are Thine.

4 When youthful Spring around us breathes,
Thy Spirit warms her fragrant sigh;
And every flow'r that Summer wreathes
Is born beneath Thy kindling eye;
Where'er we turn, Thy glories shine,

1 God moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants His footsteps on the sea,
And rides upon the storm.

2 Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill
He treasures up His bright designs,
And works His gracious will.

3 You fearful saints, fresh courage take;
The clouds you so much dread
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings on your head.

4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust Him for His grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

5 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flow'r.

And scan His work in vain:
God is His own interpreter,

- 1 THIS is the day the first ripe sheaf
Before the Lord was wav'd,
And Christ, first-fruits of them that slept,
Was from the dead receiv'd.
- 2 He rose for them for whom He died,
That like to Him, they may
Rise when He comes, in glory great,
That ne'er shall fade away.
- 3 This is the day the Spirit came
With us on earth to stay—
A Comforter, to fill our hearts
With joys that ne'er decay.
- 4 His comforts are the earnest sure
Of that same heav'nly rest
Which Jesus enter'd on, when He
Was made forever blest.
- 5 This day the Church of Christ began,
Form'd by His wondrous grace;
This day the saints in concord meet,
To join in pray'r and praise.
- 3 I sigh to think of happier days,
When Thou, O Lord, wert nigh;
When every heart was tun'd to praise,
And none so blest as I.
- 4 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Trust God, and thou shalt sing
His praise again, and find Him still
Thy health's eternal spring.

C. M.

ISAAC WATTS.

- 1 PLUNG'D in a gulf of dark despair,
We wretched sinners lay,
Without one cheerful beam of hope,
Or spark of glimm'ring day.
- 2 With pitying eyes the Prince of grace
Beheld our helpless grief;
He saw, and—O amazing love!—
He ran to our relief.
- 3 Down from the shining seats above
With joyful haste He fled;
Enter'd the grave in mortal flesh,
And dwelt among the dead.
- 4 O for this love let rocks and hills
Their lasting silence break,
And all harmonious human tongues
The Saviour's praises speak!
- 5 Angels! assist our mighty joys;
Strike all your harps of gold;
But, when you raise your highest notes,
His love can ne'er be told.

66

C. M.

TATE AND BRADY.

- 1 As pants the hart for cooling streams,
When heated in the chase,
So pants my soul, O Lord, for Thee,
And Thy refreshing grace.
- 2 For Thee, the Lord, the living Lord,
My thirsty soul doth pine;
O when shall I behold Thy face,
Thou Majesty Divine?
- 4 O for this love let rocks and hills
Their lasting silence break,
And all harmonious human tongues
The Saviour's praises speak!

- 1 BEHOLD the glories of the Lamb
Amidst His Father's throne;
Prepare new honors for His name,
And songs before unknown.
- 2 Let elders worship at His feet,
The Church adore around,
With vials full of odors sweet,
And harps of sweeter sound.
- 3 Now to the Lamb that once was slain
Be endless blessings paid;
Salvation, glory, joy remain
Forever on Thy head!
- 4 Thou hast redeem'd our souls with blood,
Hast set the pris'ners free;
Hast made us kings and priests to God,
And we shall reign with Thee.

The wormwood and the gall;
Go, spread your trophies at His feet,
And crown Him Lord of all. |
| 2 Crown Him, you martyrs of our God,
Who from His altar call;
Extol the stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown Him Lord of all. | 5 Babes, men, and sires, who know His love,
Who feel your sin and thrall,
Now join with all the hosts above,
And crown Him Lord of all. |
| 3 You chosen seed of Israel's race,
A remnant weak and small,
Hail Him who saves you by His grace,
And crown Him Lord of all. | 6 Let ev'ry kindred, ev'ry tribe,

1 O could I speak the matchless worth,
O could I sound the glories forth,
Which in my Saviour shine!

I'd soar and touch the heav'nly strings,
And vie with Gabriel while he sings,
In notes almost divine.

2 I'd sing the precious blood He spilt,
My ransom from the dreadful guilt
Of sin, and wrath divine;
I'd sing His glorious righteousness,
In which all-perfect, heav'nly dress
My soul shall ever shine.

3 I'd sing the character He bears,
And all the forms of love He wears,
Exalted on His throne;
In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
I would to everlasting days
Make all His glories known.

4 Soon the delightful day will come,
When my dear Lord will bring me home,
And I shall see His face;
Then, with my Saviour, Brother, Friend,
A blest eternity I'll spend,
Triumphant in His grace.

1 Had I ten thousand gifts beside,
I'd cleave to Jesus crucified,
And build on Him alone;
For no foundation is there giv'n
On which to place my hopes of heav'n,
But Christ the corner-stone.

2 Possessing Christ, I all possess,
Wisdom, and strength, and righteousness,
And holiness complete;
Bold in His name, I can draw nigh
Before the Ruler of the sky,
And worship at His feet.

3 There is no path to heav'nly bliss,
To solid joy or lasting peace,
But Christ, th' appointed road;
O may we tread the sacred way,
By faith rejoice, and praise, and pray,
Till we sit down with God!

1 DESPONDING soul, O cease thy woe;
Dry up thy tears; to Jesus go
In faith's appointed way;
Let not thy unbelieving fears
Still hold thee back; thy Saviour hears;
From Him no longer stay.

2 No works of thine can e'er impart
A balm to heal the wounded heart,
Or solid comfort give;
Turn, then, to Him who freely gave
His precious blood thy soul to save;
E'en now He bids thee live.

3 Helpless and lost, to Jesus fly!
His pow'r and love are ever nigh
To those who seek His face;
Thy deepest guilt on Him was laid;
He bore thy sins, thy ransom paid;
O haste to share His grace!

O may I daily live to prove

2 God only knows the love of God;
O may it now be shed abroad
To cheer my fainting heart;
I want to feel that love divine;
This heav'nly portion, Lord, be mine—
Be mine this better part.

3 O that I could forever sit
With Mary at the Master's feet!
Be this my happy choice;
My only care, delight, and bliss,
My joy, my heav'n on earth, be this,
To hear the Bridegroom's voice.

4 O that I might, with happy John,

From care, and fear, and sorrow free,
Give me, O Lord, to find in Thee

We humbly offer here.

84 S. M.

1 SERVANT of God, well done!
Rest from thy lov'd employ;
The battle fought, the vict'ry won,
Enter thy Master's joy.

2 The voice at midnight came;
He started up to hear;
A mortal arrow pierc'd his frame,
He fell, but felt no fear.

3 Tranquil amid alarms,
It found him on the field,
A vet'ran, slumb'ring on his arms,
Beneath his red-cross shield.

4 At midnight came the cry,
"To meet thy God prepare!"
He woke, and caught his Captain's eye;
Then, strong in faith and pray'r,

5 His spirit, with a bound,
Left its encumb'ring clay;
His tent, at sunrise, on the ground
A darken'd ruin lay.

6 The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease;
And, life's long warfare clos'd at last,
His soul is found in peace.

- 1 My soul, repeat His praise
Whose mercies are so great;
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.
- 2 High as the heav'n's are rais'd
Above the ground we tread,
So far the riches of His grace
Our highest thoughts exceed.
- 3 His pow'r subdues our sins,
And His forgiving love,
Far as the east is from the west,
Doth all our guilt remove.
- 4 The pity of the Lord,
To those that fear His name,
Is such as tender parents feel;
He knows our feeble frame.
- 5 Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flow'r;
If one sharp blast sweeps o'er the field,
It withers in an hour.

- 6 But Thy compassions, Lord,
To endless years endure;
And children's children ever find
Thy words of promise sure.

God shall lift up thy head.
- 2 Thro' waves, thro' clouds, and storms,
He gently clears thy way;
Wait thou His time; so shall this night
Soon end in joyous day.
- 3 Far, far above thy thought
His counsel shall appear,
When fully He the work hath wrought
That caus'd thy needless fear.
- 4 What, though thou rulest not!
Yet heav'n, and earth, and hell
Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne,
And ruleth all things well!

And though He should my life destroy,
In Him I'll put my trust.

- 1 GRACE! 'tis a charming sound,
Harmonious to the ear;
Heav'n with the echo shall resound,
And all the earth shall hear.
- 2 Grace first contriv'd the way
To save rebellious man;
And all the steps that grace display,
Which drew the wondrous plan.

- 3 Grace led our wand'ring feet
To tread the heav'nly road;
And new supplies each hour we meet
While pressing on to God.
- 4 Grace all the work shall crown
Through everlasting days;
It lays in heav'n the topmost stone,
And well deserves our praise.

1 THIS is the glorious day
That our Redeemer made;
Let us rejoice, and sing, and pray;
Let all the Church be glad.

2 The work, O Lord, is Thine,
And wondrous in our eyes;
This day declares it all divine;
This day did Jesus rise.

3 Hosanna to the King,
Of David's royal blood!
Bless Him, you saints, He comes to bring O
Salvation from your God.

4 We bless Thy Holy Word,
Which all this grace displays,
And offer on Thine altar, Lord,
Our sacrifice of praise.

1 BEHOLD what wondrous grace
The Father hath bestow'd
On sinners of a mortal race,
To call them sons of God!

2 Nor doth it yet appear
How great we must be made;
But when we see our Saviour here,
We shall be like our Head.

3 If in my Father's love
I share a filial part,
O may Thy Spirit, like a dove,
Rest ever in my heart!

4 We would no longer lie
Like slaves beneath the throne;
Our faith shall Abba, Father! cry,
And Thou the kindred own.

In sweet accord your voices raise,
In kindred homage bow.

3 Thou, whose benignant eye
In mercy looks on all—
Who seest the tear of misery,
And hear'st the mourner's call—

4 Up to Thy dwelling-place
Bear our frail spirits on,
Till they outstrip time's tardy pace,
And heav'n on earth be won.

1 "FOREVER with the Lord!"

Amen, So let it be!
Life from the dead is in that word;
'Tis immortality,
Here in the body pent,
Absent from Him I roam;
Yet nightly pitch my moving tent
A day's march nearer home, nearer, etc.

2 My Father's house on high,
Home of my soul, how near,
At times, to faith's aspiring eye,
Thy golden gates appear!
Ah, then my spirit pants
To reach the land I love,
The bright inheritance of saints,
Jerusalem above, home above, etc.

3 Yet doubts still intervene,
And all my comfort flies;
Like Noah's dove, I flit between
Rough seas and stormy skies;
Anon the clouds depart,
The winds and waters cease;
While sweetly o'er my gladden'd heart
Expands the bow of peace, bow of, etc.

With joy obey His heav'nly word,
And watch before His gate.

2 Let all your lamps be bright,
And trim the golden flame;
Gird up your loins, as in the might
Of His most holy name.

3 Watch! 'tis the Lord's command;
And while we speak He's near;
Mark the first signal of His hand,
And ready all appear.

4 O happy servant he,
In such a posture found!
He shall his Lord with rapture see,
And be with honors crown'd.

1 How pleas'd and blest was I,
To hear the people cry,
"Come, let us seek our God to-day!"
Yes, with a cheerful zeal,
We haste to Zion's hill,
And there our vows and honors pay.

2 Zion! thrice happy place,
Adorn'd with wondrous grace,
And walls of strength embrace thee round;
In thee our tribes appear,
To pray, and praise, and hear
The sacred gospel's joyful sound.

3 May peace attend thy gate,
And joy within thee wait,
To bless the soul of every guest;
The man who seeks thy peace,
And wishes thine increase—
A thousand blessings on him rest!

1 'Tis heav'n begun below
To hear Christ's praises flow
In Zion, where His name is known;
What will it be above
To sing redeeming love,
And cast our crowns before His throne?

2 O what sweet company
We then shall hear and see!
What harmony will there abound,
When souls unnumber'd sing
The praise of Zion's King,
Nor one dissenting voice be found!

3 Till that blest period come,
Zion shall be our home;
And may we never thence remove,
Till from the Church below
To that on high we go,
And there commune in perfect love.

Hark! how the heav'nly anthem drowns
All music but its own!
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of Him who died for thee;
And hail Him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity.

2 Crown Him the Lord of love!
Behold His hands and side,—
Those wounds, yet visible above,
In beauty glorified!
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his wondering eye
At mysteries so bright.

3 Crown Him the Lord of heav'n!

1 BEYOND the starry skies,
Far as th' eternal hills,
There, in the boundless world of light,
Our great Redeemer dwells.
Around Him angels fair
In countless armies shine;
And ever, in exalted lays,
They offer songs divine.

2 "Hail, Prince of life!" they cry,
"Whose unexampled love
Moved Thee to quit these glorious realms
And royalties above."
And when He stoop'd to earth,
And suffer'd rude disdain,
They cast their honors at His feet,
And waited in His train.

3 They saw Him on the cross,
While darkness veil'd the skies,
And when He burst the gates of death,
They saw the Conqu'ror rise.
They throng'd His chariot wheels,
And bore Him to His throne;
Then swept their golden harps and sung,
"The glorious work is done."

 Wide unfold the radiant scene;
 Take the King of glory in."

2 He, whom highest heav'n receives,
 Ever loves the friends He leaves;
 Though returning to His throne,
 Still He calls His saints His own;
 Still for us He intercedes,
 Prevalent His death He pleads;
 Near Himself prepares a place,
 Harbinger of human race.

3 Taken from our eyes to-day,
 Master, hear us when we pray;
 See Thy needy servants, see,
 Ever gazing up to Thee:
 Grant, though parted from our sight,
 Far above yon azure height,
 Grant our hearts may thither rise,
 Follow Thee beyond the skies.

1 THE morning light is breaking;
The darkness disappears;
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears;
Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
Brings tidings from afar
Of nations in commotion,
Prepar'd for Zion's war.
2 See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love,
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above;
While sinners, now confessing,
The gospel call obey,
And seek the Saviour's blessing,
A nation in a day.
3 Blest river of salvation,
Pursue thine onward way;
Flow thou to every nation,
Nor in thy richness stay.
Stay not till all the lowly
Triumphant reach their home;
Stay not till all the holy Proclaim, "The Lord is come!"

1 HAIL to the Lord's anointed,
Great David's greater Son!
Hail, in the time appointed,
His reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression,
To set the captive free,
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.

2 He comes, with succor speedy,
To those who suffer wrong;
To help the poor and needy,
And bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemn'd and dying,
Were precious in His sight.

3 He shall come down like showers
Upon the fruitful earth,
And love, and joy, like flowers,
Spring in His path to birth.
Before Him, on the mountains,
Shall peace, the herald, go,
And righteousness in fountains
From hill to valley flow.

1 Ho! reapers of life's harvest,
Why stand with rusted blade,
Until the night draws round thee,
And day begins to fade?
Why stand ye idle, waiting
For reapers more to come?
The golden morn is passing;
Why sit ye idle, dumb?

2 Thrust in your sharpen'd sickle,
And gather in the grain;
The night is fast approaching,
And soon will come again.
Thy Master calls for reapers;
And shall He call in vain?
Shall sheaves lie there ungather'd,
And waste upon the plain?

3 Come down from hill and mountain,
In morning's ruddy glow,
Nor wait until the dial
Points to the noon below;
And come with the strong sinew,
Nor faint in heat or cold;
And pause not till the evening
Draws round its wealth of gold.

1 HARK! ten thousand harps and voices
Sound the note of praise above;
Jesus reigns, and heav'n rejoices—
Jesus reigns, the God of love.

See! He sits on yonder throne;
Jesus rules the world alone.

Hallelujah, hallelujah!

Jesus rules the world alone.

2 Jesus, hail! whose glory brightens

All above, and gives it worth;

Lord of life, Thy smile enlightens,

Cheers, and charms Thy saints on earth;

When we think of love like Thine,

Lord, we own it love divine.

Hallelujah, hallelujah!

Lord, we own it love divine.

3 King of glory, reign forever—

Thine an everlasting crown;

Nothing from Thy love shall sever

Those whom Thou hast made Thine own;

Happy objects of Thy grace,

Destin'd to behold Thy face.

Hallelujah, hallelujah!

Destin'd to behold Thy face.

4 Saviour, hasten Thine appearing;

Bring, O bring the glorious day,

When, the awful summons hearing,

Heav'n and earth shall pass away;

Then, with golden harps, we'll sing,

"Glory, glory to our King!"

Hallelujah, hallelujah!

Glory, glory to our King!

1 On the mountain's top appearing,
Lo! the sacred herald stands,
Welcome news of Zion bearing—
Zion long in hostile lands:
Mourning captive,
God Himself will loose thy bands.

2 Has thy night been long and mournful?
Have thy friends unfaithful prov'd?
Have thy foes been proud and scornful,
By thy sighs and tears unmoved?
Cease thy mourning;
Zion still is well belov'd.

3 God, thy God, will now restore thee;
He himself appears thy Friend:
All thy foes shall flee before thee;
Here their boasts and triumphs end;
Great deliv'rance
Zion's King will surely send.

4 Peace and joy shall now attend thee;
All thy warfare now be past;
God thy Saviour will defend thee;
Victory is thine at last;
All thy conflicts
End in everlasting rest.

2 Every human tie may perish,
Friend to friend unfaithful prove,
Mothers cease their own to cherish,
Heav'n and earth at last remove;
But no changes
Can attend Jehovah's love.

3 In the furnace God may prove thee,
Thence to bring thee forth more bright,
But can never cease to love thee;
Thou art precious in His sight;
God is with thee—
God, thine everlasting light.

How pleasant and how fair
The dwellings of thy love,

To Thy abode my heart aspires,
With warm desires to see my God.

2 O happy souls, who pray
Where God appoints to hear!
O happy men, who pay
Their constant service there!
They praise Thee still; and happy they
Who love the way to Zion's hill.

3 They go from strength to strength,
Through this dark vale of tears,
Till each arrives at length,
Till each in heav'n appears:
O glorious seat, when God, our King,
Shall thither bring our willing feet.

Here may Thy word melodious sound,
And spread the joys of heav'n around.

3 Here may th' attentive throng
Imbibe Thy truth and love;
And converts join the song
Of seraphim above;
And willing crowds surround Thy board,
With sacred joy and sweet accord.

4 Here may our unborn sons

1 One sole baptismal sign,
One Lord below, above;
One faith, one hope divine,
One only watchword, love;
From many temples though it rise,
One song ascendeth to the skies.

2 Our sacrifice is one;
One Priest before the throne—
The slain, the risen Son,
Redeemer, Lord alone;
And sighs from contrite hearts that spring
Our chief, our choicest offering.

3 O may that holy pray'r,
His tend'rest and His last,
His constant, latest care,
Ere to His throne He pass'd,
No longer unfulfill'd remain
The world's offense, the people's stain.

4 Head of Thy Church beneath,

Her broken frame renew;
Then shall Thy perfect will be done
When Christians love and live as one.

Nor will th' eternal King
His words of grace revoke;
They stand secure and steadfast still;
Not Zion's hill abides so sure.

2 The mountains melt away,
When once the Judge appears;
And sun and moon decay,
That measure mortal years;
But still the same, in radiant lines,
The promise shines through all the flame.

3 Their harmony shall sound

And dissipate the spheres;
Midst all the shock of that dread scene,
I stand serene, Thy word my rock.

If they, with love sincere,
Their varied wants supply—
Much more wilt Thou Thy love display,
And answer when Thy children pray.

3 Our Heav'nly Father, Thou!
We, children of Thy grace;
O grant Thy Spirit now
To fill this sacred place;
So shall we feel the heav'nly flame,
And all unite to praise Thy name.

And such His love for you,
He nobly undertook
What angels could not do;
His every deed of love and grace
All words exceed, all thoughts surpass.

3 He left His starry crown,
And laid His robes aside;
On wings of love came down,
And wept, and bled, and died;
What He endur'd, O who can tell,
To save our souls from death and hell?

Thy voice their idols shall confound,
And cast their altars to the ground.

3 No more let human blood be spilt—
Vain sacrifice for human guilt!
But to each conscience be applied
The blood that flow'd from Jesus' side.

4 Almighty God, Thy grace proclaim
In every land, of every name!
Let adverse pow'rs before Thee fall,
And crown the Saviour Lord of all.

1 How sweet the praise, how high the theme,
To sing of Him who rules supreme;
Who dwells at God's right hand on high,
Yet looks on us with tender eye!

2 Th' angelic host, in countless throngs,
Recount His glories in their songs,
And golden harps salute His ear;
Yet our weak praise He deigns to hear.

3 The planets roll their orbits round;
Unnumber'd worlds, in space profound,
Are ruled by Him, by Him controll'd;
Yet He's the Shepherd of our fold.

4 Exalted high upon His throne,
The universe is all His own;
Untold the honors He doth wear;
Yet we are objects of His care.

1 Now for a song of lofty praise
To great Jehovah's only Son;
Awake, my voice, in heav'nly lays,
And tell the wonders He hath done.

2 Sing how He left the worlds of light,
And those bright robes He wore above;
How swift and joyful was His flight,
On wings of everlasting love!

3 Deep in the shades of gloomy death
Th' almighty Captive pris'ner lay;
Th' almighty Captive left the earth,
And rose to everlasting day.

4 Among a thousand harps and songs,
Jesus, the Lord, exalted reigns;
His sacred name fills all their tongues,
And echoes through the heav'nly plains.

2 Exalted Saviour, we confess
The mighty triumphs of Thy grace;
Where beams of gentle radiance shine,
And temper majesty divine.

3 Wide Thy resistless scepter sway,
Till all Thine enemies obey;
Wide let Thy cross its virtues prove,
And conquer millions by its love!

1 THE Lord is King! lift up thy voice,
O earth! and all ye heav'ns, rejoice!
From world to world the joy shall ring—
"The Lord omnipotent is King!"

2 The Lord is King! who, then, shall dare
Resist His will, distrust His care?
Holy and true are all His ways:
Let every creature speak His praise.

3 The Lord is King! let all bow down,
Nor dare provoke His awful frown;
Ere justice blaze, His scepter kiss,
And sate thy soul with heav'nly bliss.

When storms of sharp distress invade;
Ere we can offer our complaints,

Down to the deep, and buried there,
Convulsions shake the solid world,
Our faith shall never yield to fear.

They can not damp Thy children's joys,
Or shake the soul, while God is nigh.

- 1 ALMIGHTY Maker of my frame,
Teach me the measure of my days;
Teach me to know how frail I am,
And spend the remnant to Thy praise.
- 2 My days are shorter than a span;
A little point my life appears;
How frail at best is dying man!
How vain are all his hopes and fears!
- 3 Vain his ambition, noise, and show,
Vain are the cares which rack his mind;
He heaps up treasures mix'd with woe,
And dies, and leaves them all behind.
- 4 O be a nobler portion mine!
My God, I bow before Thy throne;
Earth's fleeting treasures I resign,
And fix my hope on Thee alone.
- 2 What can I do, so poor, so weak,
But from Thy hands new blessings seek?
A heart to feel Thy mercies more,
A soul to know Thee, and adore?
- 3 O teach me at Thy feet to fall,
And yield to Thee myself, my all—
Before Thy saints my sins to own,
And live and die to Thee alone!

And seas Thine awful will perform;
From them we learn to own Thy sway,
And shout to meet the gath'ring storm.

To Him I look, on Him I call;
He will my every want supply
In time, and through eternity.

Dragg'd to the portals of the sky.

2 There His triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay;
Lift up your heads, you heav'nly gates!
You everlasting doors, give way!

3 Loose all your bars of massy light,
And wide unfold the radiant scene!
He claims those mansions as His right—
Receive the King of glory in!

4 Who is the King of glory—who?
The Lord, who all His foes o'ercame;
The world, sin, death, and hell o'erthrew,
And Jesus is the Conqu'ror's name.

5 Lo! His triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay;
Lift up your heads, you heav'nly gates!
You everlasting doors, give way!

6 Who is the King of glory—who?

The King of saints and angels, too—
Lord over all, forever blest.

2 Here sinners of a humble frame
May taste His grace and learn His name;

Severely just—immensely good.

3 Here Jesus, in ten thousand ways,
His soul-attracting charms displays;
Recounts His poverty and pains,

TIMOTHY DWIGHT.

1 WHILE life prolongs its precious light,
Mercy is found, and peace is giv'n;
But soon, ah! soon, approaching night
Shall blot out every hope of heav'n.

3 On Thee, our guardian God, we call;
Before Thy throne of grace we fall;
And is there no deliverance there?
And must we perish in despair?

2 While God invites, how blest the day!
How sweet the gospel's charming sound!
Come, sinners, haste, O haste away,
While yet a pard'ning God is found.

4 See, we repent, we weep, we mourn;
To our forsaken God we turn;
O spare our guilty country; spare
The Church which Thou hast planted here.

3 Soon, borne on time's most rapid wing,
Shall death command you to the grave,
Before His bar your spirits bring,
And none be found to hear or save.

5 We plead Thy grace, indulgent God;
We plead Thy Son's atoning blood;
We plead Thy gracious promises;
And are they unavailing pleas?

4 Now God invites: how blest the day!
How sweet the gospel's charming sound!
Come, sinners, haste, O haste away,
While yet a pard'ning God is found.

6 These pleas, presented at Thy throne,
Have brought ten thousand blessings down
On guilty lands in helpless woe;
Let them prevail to save us too.

1 My only Saviour! when I feel
O'erwhelm'd in spirit, faint, oppress'd,
'Tis sweet to tell Thee, while I kneel
Low at Thy feet, Thou art my rest.

2 I'm weary of the strife within;
Strong pow'rs against my soul contest;
O let me turn from self and sin
To Thy dear cross, for there is rest!

3 O sweet will be the welcome day,
When, from her toils and woes releas'd,
My parting soul in death shall say,
"Now, Lord! I come to Thee for rest."

1 UNVEIL thy bosom, faithful tomb;
Take this new treasure to thy trust,
And give these sacred relics room
To slumber in the silent dust.

2 Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear,
Invade thy bounds; no mortal woes
Can reach the peaceful sleeper here,
While angels watch the soft repose.

3 So Jesus slept; God's dying Son
Pass'd thro' the grave and bless'd the bed;
Rest here, blest saint, till from His throne
The morning break, and pierce the shade.

4 Break from His throne, illustrious morn;
Attend, O earth, His sov'reign word;
Restore thy trust; a glorious form
Shall then arise to meet the Lord.

1 How blest are they whose transient years
Pass like an evening meteor's flight;
Not dark with guilt, nor dim with tears;
Whose course is short, unclouded, bright!

2 O cheerless were our lengthen'd way;
But heaven's sown light dispels the gloom,
Streams downward from eternal day,
And casts a glory round the tomb.

3 O stay thy tears; the blest above
Have hail'd a spirit's heav'nly birth,
And sung a song of joy and love;
Then why should anguish reign on earth?

1 How blest the sacred tie that binds,
In sweet communion, kindred minds!
How swift the heav'nly course they run,
Whose hearts, whose faith, whose hopes are one!

2 To each the soul of each how dear!
What tender love, what holy fear!
How doth the gen'rous flame within
Refine from earth, and cleanse from sin!

3 Their streaming eyes together flow
For human guilt and mortal woe;
Their ardent pray'rs together rise
Like mingling flames in sacrifice.

4 Nor shall the glowing flame expire,
When dimly burns frail nature's fire;
Then shall they meet in realms above,
A heav'n of joy, a heav'n of love.

1 HAPPY the church, thou sacred place,
The seat of thy Creator's grace!
Thy holy courts are His abode,
Thou earthly palace of our God!

2 Thy walls are strength, and at thy gates
A guard of heav'nly warriors waits;
Nor shall thy deep foundations move,
Fix'd on His counsels and His love.

3 Thy foes in vain designs engage;
Against His throne in vain they rage,
Like rising waves, with angry roar,

Swift as the fleeting moments run,
On us He sheds new beams of grace,
And we reflect His brightest praise.

1 FATHER of spirits! nature's God!
Our inmost thoughts are known to Thee;
Thou, Lord, canst hear each idle word,
And every private action see.

2 Could we, on morning's swiftest wings,
Pursue our flight through trackless air,
Or dive beneath deep ocean's springs,
Thy presence still would meet us there.

3 In vain may guilt attempt to fly,
Conceal'd beneath the pall of night;
One glance from Thy all-piercing eye
Can kindle darkness into light.

4 Search Thou our hearts, and there destroy
Each evil thought, each secret sin,
And fit us for those realms of joy
Where naught impure shall enter in.

Thy presence working all things well!

- 1 How vain is all beneath the skies!
How transient every earthly bliss!
How slender all the fondest ties
That bind us to a world like this!
- 2 The evening cloud, the morning dew,
The with'ring grass, the fading flow'r,
Of earthly hopes are emblems true—
The glory of a passing hour.
- 3 But though earth's fairest blossoms die,
And all beneath the skies is vain,
There is a brighter world on high,
Beyond the reach of care and pain.
- 4 Then let the hope of joys to come
Dispel our cares and chase our fears;
If God be ours, we're trav'ling home,
Though passing through a vale of tears.

- 1 WELCOME, ye hopeful heirs of heav'n,
To this rich feast of gospel love!
This pledge is but the prelude giv'n
To that immortal feast above.
- 2 How great the blessing, thus to meet
According to our Saviour's word,
And hold, by faith, communion sweet
With our unseen, yet present, Lord!
- 3 And if so sweet this feast below,
What will it be to meet above,
Where all we see, and feel, and know,
Are fruits of everlasting love?
- 4 Soon shall we tune the heav'nly lyre,
While list'ning worlds the song approve;
Eternity itself expire,
Ere we exhaust the theme of love.

The thorny crown, the insult keen,
The scourge, the cross, before Thee rose.

3 Did not Thy spirit shrink dismay'd,

And, though in sinless strength array'd,
Turn, shudd'ring, from the death of shame?

And all the mingling sounds of Spring
To Thee a general pæan raise.
- 3 And shall my voice, great God! alone
Be mute 'midst nature's loud acclaim?
No; let my heart with answering tone
Breathe forth in praise Thy holy name.

Why should we grovel here on earth?
Why grasp at vain and fleeting toys,
So near to heav'n's eternal joys?

While we are walking back to God?
As strangers into life we come,

Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.

1 'Twas on that night, when doom'd to know
The eager rage of every foe,
That night in which He was betray'd,
The Saviour of the world took bread;

2 And, after thanks and glory giv'n
To Him that rules in earth and heav'n,
That symbol of His flesh He broke,
And thus to all His foll'wers spoke:

3 My broken body thus I give
To you, my friends; take, eat, and live;
And oft the sacred feast renew,
That brings my wondrous love to view.

4 Then in His hands the cup He rais'd,
And God anew He thank'd and prais'd;
While kindness in His bosom glow'd,
And from His lips salvation flow'd.

5 My blood I thus pour forth, He cries,
To cleanse the soul in sin that lies;
In this the covenant is seal'd,
And heav'n's eternal grace reveal'd.

Thy way to happiness and God;
Her weak directions leave the mind
Bewilder'd in a dubious road.

3 No other name will heav'n approve;
Thou art the true, the living way,
Ordain'd by everlasting love,
To the bright realms of endless day.

4 Here let our constant feet abide,
Nor from the heav'nly path depart;
O let Thy Spirit, gracious Guide!
Direct our steps, and cheer our heart.

4 Then with the visits of Thy love
Vouchsafe my inmost soul to cheer;
Till every grace shall join to prove
That God has fix'd His dwelling there.

1 WHEN we the sacred grave survey
In which the Saviour deign'd to lie,
We see fulfill'd what prophets say,
And all the pow'r of death defy.

2 This empty tomb shall now proclaim
How weak the bands of conquer'd death;
Sure pledge that all who trust His name
Shall rise and draw immortal breath.

3 Jesus, once number'd with the dead,
Unseals His eyes to sleep no more;
And ever lives their cause to plead,
For whom the pains of death He bore.

4 Then, though in dust we lay our head,
Yet, gracious God, Thou wilt not leave
Our flesh forever with the dead,
Nor lose Thy children in the grave!

1 RETURN, my roving heart, return,
And chase these shadowy forms no more;
Seek out some solitude to mourn,
And thy forsaken God implore.

2 O Thou, great God, whose piercing eye
Distinctly marks each deep recess,
In these sequester'd hours draw nigh,
And with Thy presence fill the place.

3 Through all the windings of my heart
My search let heav'nly wisdom guide;
And still its radiant beams impart
Till all be search'd and purified.

1 JESUS, thou Shepherd of the sheep,
Thy little flock in safety keep;
These lambs within Thine arms now take,
Nor let them e'er Thy fold forsake.

2 Secure them from the scorching beam,
And lead them to the living stream;
In verdant pastures let them lie,
And watch them with a shepherd's eye.

3 O teach them to discern Thy voice,
And in its sacred sound rejoice;
From strangers may they ever flee,
And know no other guide but Thee.

4 Lord, bring Thy sheep that wander yet,
And let their number be complete;
Then let the flock from earth remove,
And reach the heav'nly fold above.

1 WHEN I survey the wondrous cross
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.

2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my Lord;
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to His blood.

3 See, from His head, His hands, His feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did ere such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

1 ASLEEP in Jesus! blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep;
A calm and undisturb'd repose,
Unbroken by the last of foes.

2 Asleep in Jesus! O how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet!
With holy confidence to sing,
That death has lost its venom'd sting.

3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest,
Whose waking is supremely blest:
No fear, no woe, shall dim the hour
That manifests the Saviour's pow'r.

4 Asleep in Jesus! O for me
May such a blissful refuge be!
Securely shall my ashes lie,
And wait the summons from on high.

5 Asleep in Jesus! time nor space
Affects this precious hiding-place;
On Indian plains, on Lapland snows,
Believers find the same repose.

6 Asleep in Jesus! far from thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be;
But thine is still a blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep.

1 LORD, as to Thy dear cross we flee,
And pray to be forgiv'n,
So let Thy life our pattern be,
And form our souls for heav'n.

2 Help us through good report and ill,
Our daily cross to bear;
Like Thee, to do our Father's will,
Our brother's griefs to share.

3 Let grace our selfishness expel,
Our earthliness refine;
And kindness in our bosoms dwell
As free and true as Thine.

4 If joy shall at Thy bidding fly,
And grief's dark day come on,
We, in our turn, would meekly cry,
"Father, Thy will be done!"

5 Kept peaceful in the midst of strife,
Forgiving and forgiv'n,
O may we lead the pilgrim's life,
And follow Thee to heav'n!

1 THEE we adore, Eternal Name,
And humbly own to Thee
How feeble is our mortal frame,
What dying worms are we.

2 The year rolls round, and steals away
The breath that first it gave;
Whate'er we do, where'er we be,
We're trav'ling to the grave.

3 Great God! on what a slender thread
Hang everlasting things!
Th' eternal state of all the dead
Upon life's feeble strings.

4 Infinite joy, or endless woe,
Attends on every breath;
And yet how unconcern'd we go
Upon the brink of death!

5 Waken, O Lord, our drowsy sense,
To walk this dangerous road;
And if our souls are hurried hence,
May they be found with God.

1 MERCY alone can meet my case;
For mercy, Lord, I cry;
Jesus, Redeemer, show Thy face
In mercy, or I die.

1 In every trouble, sharp and strong,
My soul to Jesus flies;
My anchor-hold is firm in Him
When swelling billows rise.

2 I perish, and my doom were just;
But wilt Thou leave me? No!
I hold Thee fast, my hope, my trust;
I will not let Thee go.

2 His comforts bear my spirit up;
I trust a faithful God;
The sure foundation of my hope
Is in a Saviour's blood.

3 To Thee, Thee only will I cleave;
Thy word is all my plea;
That word is truth, and I believe;
Have mercy, Lord, on me.

3 Loud hallelujahs sing, my soul,
To thy Redeemer's name!
In joy and sorrow, life and death,
His love is still the same.

Among the sons of men;
Fairer is He than all the fair
Who fill the heav'nly train.

3 He saw me plung'd in deep distress,
And flew to my relief;
For me He bore the shameful cross,
And carried all my grief.

4 To Him I owe my life and breath,

- 1 HELP us, O Lord, Thy yoke to wear,
Delighting in Thy will;
Each other's burdens learn to bear,
The law of love fulfill.
- 2 He that hath pity on the poor,
Doth lend unto the Lord:
And, lo! His recompense is sure;
For more shall be restor'd.
- 3 To Thee our all devoted be,
In whom we move and live;
Freely we have receiv'd from Thee;
And freely may we give.

- 4 And while we thus obey Thy word,
And every want relieve,
O may we find it, gracious Lord!
More blest than to receive.

- 1 SHE lov'd her Saviour, and to Him
Her costliest present brought;
To crown His head, or grace His name,
No gift too rare she thought.
- 2 So let the Saviour be ador'd,
And not the poor despis'd;
Give to the hungry from your hoard,
But all, give all to Christ.
- 3 Go, clothe the naked, lead the blind,
Give to the weary rest;
For sorrow's children comfort find,
And help for all distress'd;
- 4 But give to Christ alone thy heart,
Thy faith, thy love supreme;
Then for His sake thine alms impart,
And so give all to Him.

329 C. M.

W. R. BALDWIN.

- 1 O FOR a faith that will not shrink,
Though press'd by every foe;
That will not tremble on the brink
Of any earthly woe!
- 2 That will not murmur nor complain
Beneath the chast'ning rod,
But, in the hour of grief or pain,
Will lean upon its God;
- 3 A faith that shines more bright and clear
When tempests rage without;
That, when in danger, knows no fear;
In darkness feels no doubt.
- 4 Lord, give us such a faith as this;
And then, whate'er may come,
We'll taste e'en here the hallow'd bliss
Of an eternal home.

1 Jesus, in Thy transporting name,
What blissful glories rise!
Jesus, the angels' sweetest theme,
The wonder of the skies!

2 Well might the skies with wonder view
A love so strange as Thine!
No thought of angels ever knew
Compassion so divine!

3 Jesus, and didst Thou leave the sky
To bear our sins and woes?
And didst Thou bleed, and groan, and die,
For vile, rebellious foes?

4 Victorious love! can language tell
The wonders of thy pow'r,
Which conquer'd all the force of hell
In that tremendous hour!

5 What glad return can I impart
For favors so divine?
O take this heart, this worthless heart,
And make it only Thine!

1 You glitt'ring toys of earth, adieu!
A nobler choice be mine;
A real prize attracts my view—
A treasure all divine.

2 Away, unworthy of my cares,
You specious baits of sense;
Inestimable worth appears,
The pearl of price immense!

3 Jesus, to multitudes unknown—
O name divinely sweet!
Jesus, in Thee, in Thee alone,
Wealth, honor, pleasure, meet.

4 Should earth's vain treasures all depart,
Of this dear gift possess'd,
I'd clasp it to my joyful heart,
And be forever blest.

5 Blest Sov'reign of my soul's desires,
Thy love is bliss divine!
Accept the praise that love inspires,
Since I can call Thee mine!

1 THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign;
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.
There everlasting Spring abides,
And never-with'ring flow'rs;
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heav'nly land from ours.

2 Sweet fields, beyond the swelling flood,
Stand dress'd in living green;
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan roll'd between.
But tim'rous mortals start and shrink
To cross this narrow sea,
And linger, shiv'ring, on the brink,
And fear to launch away.

3 O could we make our doubts remove—
Those gloomy doubts that rise—
And see the Canaan that we love,
With unbecclouded eyes;
Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

Which Jesus' grace has giv'n;
The hope, when days and years are past,

What though beneath an eastern sun

Yet still we share the blissful hope
Which Jesus' grace has giv'n;
The hope, when days and years are past,
We all shall meet in heav'n.

1 THIS book is all that's left me now;
Tears will unbidden start;
With falt'ring heart and throbbing brow

For many generations past,
Here is our family tree;
My mother's hand this Bible clasp'd;
She, dying, gave it me.

2 Ah! well do I remember those Whose name these records bear;
Who round the hearth-stone used to close,
Before the evening pray'r,
And tell of what those pages said
In terms my heart would thrill!
Though they are with the silent dead,
Here are they living still.

3 My father read this holy book
To brothers, sisters dear;
How calm was my poor mother's look,
Who lean'd God's word to hear!
Her angel face—I see it yet!
What thronging mem'ries come!
Again the little group is met
Within the walls of home.

4 Thou truest friend man ever knew,
Thy constancy I've tried;
Where all were false, I found thee true—

And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.
- 4 Though often call'd to part,
Amid these scenes of pain,
Yet we shall still be join'd in heart,

- 1 How gentle God's commands!
How kind His precepts are!
Come, cast your burdens on the Lord,
And trust His constant care.
- 2 His bounty will provide;
His saints securely dwell;
That hand which bears creation up,
Shall guard His children well.
- 3 Why should this anxious load
Press down your weary mind?

O seek your heav'nly Father's throne,
And peace and comfort find.

- 4 His goodness stands approv'd,
Unchang'd from day to day;
I'll drop my burden at His feet,
And bear a song away.

- 1 Nor all the blood of beasts,
On Jewish altars slain,
Could give the guilty conscience peace,
Or wash away its stain.
- 2 But Christ, the heav'nly Lamb,
Bears all our sins away;
A sacrifice of nobler name
And richer blood than they.
- 3 My faith would lay her hand
On that dear head of Thine,
While, like a penitent, I stand,
And there confess my sin.
- 4 Believing, we rejoice
To see the curse remove;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
And sing His dying love.

1 How various and how new
Are Thy compassions, Lord!
Each morning shall Thy mercies show,
Each night Thy truth record.

2 Thy goodness, like the sun,
Dawn'd on our early days,
Ere infant reason had begun
To form our lips to praise.

3 Each object we beheld
Gave pleasure to our eyes;
And nature all our senses held
In bands of sweet surprise.

4 But pleasures more refin'd
Awaited that blest day,
When light arose upon our mind
And chas'd our sins away.

5 How new Thy mercies, then!
How sov'reign and how free!
Our souls, that had been dead in sin,
Where made alive to Thee.

O make Thy servants truly wise,
That they may live to-day.

3 One thing demands our care;
O be it still pursued!
Lest! slighted once, the season fair

And all new strength receive.
- 4 Thankful that whilst we view
Thy body, bruise'd and torn,
Life, health, and healing still accrue
From stripes which Thou hast borne.
- 5 Dear Lord! what mem'ries crowd
Around the sacred cup—
The upper room! Gethsemane!
Thy foes! Thy lifting up!
- 6 O scenes of suff'ring love!
Enough our souls to win;
Enough to melt our hearts, and prove
The antidote of sin.
- 2 Before thy heart had learn'd
In waywardness to stray;
Before thy feet had ever turn'd
The dark and downward way;
- 3 Ere sin had sear'd the breast,
Or sorrow woke the tear;
Rise to thy home of changeless rest
In yon celestial sphere.
- 4 Because thy smile was fair,
Thy lip and eye so bright,
Because thy loving cradle care
Was such a dear delight,
- 5 Shall love, with weak embrace,
Thy upward wing detain?
No! gentle angel, seek thy place
Amid the cherub train.

A few more seasons come,
And we shall be with those that rest,
Asleep within the tomb;
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that great day;
O wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away!
2 A few more suns shall set
O'er these dark hills of time,
And we shall be where suns are not—
A far serenest clime.
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that blest day;
O wash me in Thy precious blood,
And take my sins away!

3 A few more storms shall beat
On this wild, rocky shore;
And we shall be where tempests cease,
And surges swell no more.
Then, O my Lord, prepare

1 I LOVE Thy kingdom, Lord,
The house of Thine abode,
The Church our blest Redeemer sav'd
With His own precious blood.
I love Thy Church, O God!
Her walls before Thee stand,
Dear as the apple of Thine eye,
And graven on Thy hand.
2 For her my tears shall fall,
For her my pray'rs ascend;
To her my cares and toils be giv'n,
Till toils and cares shall end.

Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heav'nly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
Her hymns of love and praise.
3 Jesus, thou Friend divine,
Our Saviour and our King!
Thy hand from every snare and foe

1 Ah! how shall fallen man
Be just before His God!
If He contend in righteousness,
We fall beneath His rod.
2 If He our ways should mark
With strict, inquiring eyes,
Could we for one of all our sins
A just excuse devise?
3 All-seeing, pow'rful God!
Who can with Thee contend?

Or who, that tries th' unequal strife,
Shall prosper in the end?
4 The mountains, in Thy wrath,
Their ancient seats forsake;
The trembling earth deserts her place,
Her rooted pillars shake.
5 Ah! how shall guilty man
Contend with such a God?
None, none can meet Him and escape,
But through the Saviour's blood.

- 1 Who are these in bright array,
This exulting happy throng,
Round the altar night and day,
Hymning one triumphant song?
"Worthy is the Lamb once slain,
Blessing, honor, glory, pow'r,
Wisdom, riches, to obtain,
New dominion ev'ry hour."
- 2 These through fiery trials trod;
These from great affliction came;
Now, before the throne of God,
Seal'd with His almighty name.
Clad in raiment pure and white,
Victor-palms in every hand,
Through their great Redeemer's might,
More than conquerors they stand.
- 3 Hunger, thirst, disease unknown,
On immortal fruits they feed;
Them the Lamb, amidst the throne,
Shall to living fountains lead;
Joy and gladness banish sighs,
Perfect love dispels all fears;
And forever from their eyes
God shall wipe away the tears.

- 1 High in yonder realms of light
Dwell the raptur'd saints above;
Far beyond our feeble sight,
Happy in Immanuel's love;
Once they knew, like us below,
Pilgrims in this vale of tears,
Torturing pain and heavy woe,
Gloomy doubts, distressing fears.
- 2 'Mid the chorus of the skies,
'Mid th' angelic lyres above,
Hark! their songs melodious rise,
Songs of praise to Jesus' love!
Happy spirits, ye are fled
Where no grief can entrance find,
Lull'd to rest the aching head,
Sooth'd the anguish of the mind.
- 3 All is tranquil and serene,
Calm and undisturb'd repose;
There no cloud can intervene,
There no angry tempest blows;
Every tear is wip'd away,
Sighs no more shall heave the breast;
Night is lost in endless day;
Sorrow, in eternal rest.

Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but Thou art mighty,
Hold me with Thy pow'rful hand;
Bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more.

Whence the healing waters flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through;
Strong Deliv'rer,
Be Thou still my strength and shield.
- 3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Bear me through the swelling current,
Land me safe on Canaan's side!
Songs of praises

All the earth keep silence here,
Worship Him in truth and spirit,
Reverence Him with godly fear;
Holy, holy,
Lord of hosts, our Lord, appear.
- 2 God in Christ reveals His presence,
Thron'd upon the mercy-seat;
Saints, rejoice! and sinners, tremble!
Each prepare His God to meet!
Lowly, lowly,
Bow adoring at His feet.
- 3 Hail Him here with songs of praises,
Him with pray'rs of faith surround;
Hearken to His glorious gospel,
While the preacher's lips expound;
Blessed, blessed,
They who know the joyful sound.

Start beneath its magic spell!

2 Love of God, all love embracing
In its wide-extended arms;
All our doubts and fears displacing,
Saves our souls from death's alarms;
O what sweetness
Dwells within its blissful charms!

3 Love of God, all love possessing!
Filling all our souls with joy;

Who like Thee His praise should sing?
Praise Him! praise Him!
Praise the everlasting King!

2 Praise Him for His grace and favor
To our fathers in distress;
Praise Him, still the same forever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless;
Praise Him! praise Him!
Glorious in His faithfulness!

3 Father-like He tends and spares us;
Well our feeble frame He knows;
In His hands He gently bears us—
Rescues us from all our foes;
Praise Him! praise Him!
Widely as His mercy flows!

3 While we hear the wondrous story

2 Look upon me, Lord, I pray Thee;
Let Thy Spirit dwell in mine;
Thou hast sought me, Thou hast bought
Only Thee to know I pine: [me,
Let me find Thee—

Take my heart and grant me Thine.

3 Nought I ask for, nought I strive for,
But Thy grace, so rich and free,
That Thou givest whom Thou lovest,
And who truly cleave to Thee;
Let me find Thee—

2 See the Judge, our nature wearing,
Cloth'd in majesty divine!
You who long for His appearing,
Then shall say, "This Lord is mine!"
Gracious Saviour,
Own me, in that day, for Thine!

3 At His call the dead awaken,
Rise to life from earth and sea;
All the pow'rs of nature, shaken
By His looks, prepare to flee;
Careless sinner,
What will then become of thee?

4 But to those who have confessed,
Lov'd, and serv'd the Lord below,
He will say, "Come near, you blessed;
See the kingdom I bestow;
You forever
Shall my love and glory know."

2 Every eye shall now behold Him
Rob'd in dreadful majesty;
Those who set at naught and sold Him,
Pierc'd and nail'd Him to the tree,
Deeply wailing,
Shall the true Messiah see.

3 Every island, sea, and mountain,
Heav'n and earth, shall flee away;
All who hate Him, must, confounded,

Wherefore art thou thus cast down?
Let thy griefs be turn'd to gladness,
Bid thy restless fears be gone;
Look to Jesus,
And rejoice in His dear name.
- 2 What though Satan's strong temptations
Vex and grieve thee day by day,
And thy sinful inclinations
Often fill thee with dismay;
Thou shalt conquer
Through the Lamb's redeeming blood.
- 3 Though ten thousand ills beset thee
From without and from within,
Jesus saith He'll ne'er forget thee,
But will save from hell and sin.
He is faithful
To perform His gracious word.
- 4 Though distresses now attend thee,
And thou tread'st the thorny road,
His right hand shall still defend thee;
Soon He'll bring thee home to God;
Therefore praise Him,
Praise the great Redeemer's name.
- 2 It is finish'd! O what pleasure
Do these precious words afford!
Heav'nly blessings without measure
Flow to us from Christ the Lord;
It is finish'd!
Saints, the dying words record.
- 3 Finish'd all the types and shadows

- 2 Lord, how long shall the creation
Groan and travail sore in pain,
Waiting for its sure salvation
When Thou shalt in glory reign,
And, like Eden,
This sad earth shall bloom again?
- 3 Haste, O hasten Thine appearing,

Where hatred is conquer'd by love?
It fastens our souls with such ties
That distance nor time can remove.

All around was silent,
Save the night-wind's wail,
When Christ, the Man of Sorrows,
In tears, and sweat, and blood,
Prostrate in the garden,
Rais'd His voice to God.

2 Smitten for offenses
Which were not His own,

Nor hand to help was there,
When the meek and lowly
Humbly bow'd in pray'r.

3 Abba, Father, Father!
If indeed it may,
Let this cup of anguish
Pass from me, I pray.
Yet, if it must be suffer'd
By me, Thine only Son,
Abba, Father, Father,
Let Thy will be done.

SORROWS. 6s, 5s & 7s.

[SECOND TUNE.]

J. P. POWELL.

Night with ebon pin-ion, Brood-ed o'er the vale; All around was silent, Save the night-wind's wail,

When Christ, the Man of Sorrows, In tears, and sweat, and blood, Prostrate in the garden, Rais'd His voice to God.

1 JESUS wept! those tears are over,
But His heart is still the same;
Kinsman, Friend, and Elder Brother,
Is His everlasting name.
Saviour, who can love like Thee?
Gracious One of Bethany!

2 When the pangs of trial seize us,
When the waves of sorrow roll,
I will lay my head on Jesus—
Pillow of the troubled soul.
Truly, none can feel like Thee,
Weeping One of Bethany!

3 Jesus wept, and still in glory
He can mark each mourner's tear—
Living to retrace the story
Of the hearts He solac'd here.
Lord, when I am call'd to die,
Let me think of Bethany!

4 Jesus wept! that tear of sorrow
Is a legacy of love;
Yesterday, to-day, to-morrow,
He the same shall ever prove.
Thou art all in all to me,
Living One of Bethany!

1 THROUGH the day Thy love hath spar'd 2 Wand'ring in the land of strangers,
Wearied we lie down to rest; [us; Dwelling in the midst of foes,
Through the silent watches guard us, Us and ours preserve from dangers;
Let no foe our peace molest. In Thy love we all repose.
Father! Thou our guardian be; Father! Thou our guardian be;
Sweet it is to trust in Thee. Sweet it is to trust in Thee.

My God, is an - y hour so sweet, From blush of morn to even-ing star, As that which calls me to Thy feet, The hour of pray'r?

8s & 4.

CHARLOTTE ELLIOTT.

1 My God, is any hour so sweet,
From blush of morn to evening star,
As that which calls me to Thy feet,
The hour of pray'r?

2 Blest is the tranquil hour of morn,
And blest that hour of solemn eve,
When, on the wings of pray'r upborne,
The world I leave.

3 Then is my strength by Thee renew'd; 3 Then myst'ry clouds my darken'd path,
Then are my sins by Thee forgiv'n;
Then dost Thou cheer my solitude I'll check my dread, my doubts reprove;
With hopes of heav'n. In this my soul sweet comfort hath,
That God is love!

4 Hush'd is each doubt, gone every fear; 4 O may this truth my heart employ,
My spirit seems in heav'n to stay; And every gloomy thought remove;
And e'en the penitential tear It fills my soul with boundless joy,
Is wiped away. That God is love!

PEACE, troubled soul, whose plaintive moan 2 Come, freely come, by sin oppress'd,
Hath taught each scene the notes of woe; On Jesus cast thy weighty load;
Cease thy complaint, suppress thy groan, In Him thy refuge find, thy rest,
And let thy tears forget to flow; Safe in the mercy of thy God;
Behold the precious balm is found Thy God's thy Saviour—glorious word!
To lull thy pain, to heal thy wound. O hear, believe and bless the Lord!

1 SILENT night! hallow'd night!
Land and deep silent sleep;
Softly glitters bright Bethlehem's star,
Beck'ning Israel's eye from afar,
Where the Saviour is born.

2 Silent night! hallow'd night!
On the plain wakes the strain,

Sung by heav'nly harbingers bright,
Fraught with tidings of boundless delight;
Christ the Saviour has come.

3 Silent night! hallow'd night!
Earth awake, silence break,
High your anthems of melody raise,
Heav'n and earth in full chorus of praise;
Peace forever shall reign.

COME, YE DISCONSOLATE. 11s & 10s.

S. WEBER.

Come, ye dis-con-so-late, wher - e'er you lan-guish; Come, at the shrine of God ferv-ent-ly kneel;

Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish; Earth has no sorrow that heav'n can not heal.

558

- 1 COME, ye disconsolate, where'er you languish,
Come, at the shrine of God fervently kneel;
Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish;
Earth has no sorrow that heav'n can not heal.
- 2 Joy of the desolate, light of the straying,
Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure!
Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly saying,
Earth has no sorrow that heav'n can not cure.
- 3 Here see the bread of life; see waters flowing
Forth from the throne of God, pure from above;
Come to the feast of love; come, ever knowing,
Earth has no sorrow but heav'n can remove.

THE PEACE OF GOD. P. M.

KNOWLES SHAW.

We ask for peace, O Lord! Thy children ask Thy peace; Not what the world calls rest, That toil and care should cease.

That through bright, sunny hours Calm life should fleet a-way, And tranquil night should fade In smiling day;

It is not for such peace that we would pray.

2 We ask Thy peace, O Lord!
Through storm, and fear, and strife,
To light and guide us on
Through a long, struggling life;
While no success or gain
Shall cheer the desp'rate fight,
Or nerve, what the world calls,
Our wasted might;
Yet pressing thro' the darkness to the light.

9 P. M. MISS A. A. PROCTER.

We ask for peace, O Lord!
Thy children ask Thy peace;
What the world calls rest,
That toil and care should cease,
That through bright, sunny hours
Calm life should fleet away,
That tranquil night should fade
In smiling day;
Not for such peace that we would pray.

3 It is Thine own, O Lord!
Who toil while others sleep;
Who sow with loving care
What other hands shall reap;
They lean on Thee entranc'd,
In calm and perfect rest;
Give us that peace, O Lord!
Divine and blest,

[best.

Thou keepest for those hearts who love Thee

D P. M. CHARLES BEECHER.

We are on our journey home,
Where Christ, our Lord, is gone;
Shall meet around His throne,
When He makes His people one,
In the new Jerusalem.

We can see that distant home,
Though clouds rise dark between;
Thou views the radiant dome,
And a luster flashes keen
From the new Jerusalem.

3 O holy! heav'nly home!
O rest eternal there!
When shall the exiles come,
Where they cease from earthly care,
In the new Jerusalem?

4 Our hearts are breaking now
Those mansions fair to see;
O Lord! Thy heavens bow,
And raise us up with Thee,
To the new Jerusalem.

- 1 HERE, O my Lord, I see Thee face to face;
Here would I touch and handle things unseen;
Here grasp with firmer hand th' eternal grace,
And all my weariness upon Thee lean.
- 2 Here would I feed upon the bread of God;
Here drink with Thee the royal wine of heav'n;
Here would I lay aside each earthly load,
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiv'n.
- 3 Too soon we rise; the symbols disappear;
The feast, though not the love, is pass'd and gone;
The bread and wine remove, but Thou art here—
Nearer than ever—still my Shield and Sun.
- 4 Feast after feast thus comes and passes by;
Yet, passing, points to the glad feast above—
Giving sweet foretaste of the festal joy,
The Lamb's great bridal feast of bliss and love.

1 God of our salvation!
Unto Thee we pray;
Hear our supplication,
Be our strength and stay.
Wretched and unworthy,
Poor, and sick, and blind,
Prostrate we adore Thee,
Call Thy grace to mind.

2 God of our salvation!
Saviour, Prince of peace,
Boundless Thy compassion,
Infinite Thy grace.
While, with love unceasing,
Humbly we adore,
Grant us Thy rich blessing,
And we ask no more.

1 Abide with me, fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens, Lord, with me abide;
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me!

2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O Thou! who changest not, abide with me!

3 I need Thy presence every passing hour;
What but Thy grace can foil the tempter's pow'r?
Who, like Thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, O abide with me!

4 Hold Thou Thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord! abide with me!

1 My Saviour, as Thou wilt!
O may Thy will be mine!
Into Thy hand of love
I would my all resign;
Through sorrow, or through joy,
Conduct me as Thine own,
And help me still to say,
My Lord, Thy will be done!

2 My Saviour, as Thou wilt!
If needy here and poor,
Give me Thy people's bread,
Their portion rich and sure.
The manna of Thy word,
Let my soul feed upon;
And if all else should fail,
My Lord, Thy will be done!

3 My Saviour, as Thou wilt!
If among thorns I go,
Still sometimes here and there
Let a few roses blow.
But Thou, on earth, along
The thorny path hast gone;
Then lead me after Thee;
My Lord, Thy will be done!

566

HORATIUS BONAR.

1 I did Thee wrong, my God;
I wrong'd Thy truth and love;
I fretted at the rod—
Against Thy pow'r I strove.
Come nearer, nearer still;
Let not Thy light depart;
Bend, break this stubborn will;
Dissolve this iron heart!

2 Less wayward let me be,
More pliable and mild;
In glad simplicity,
More like a trustful child.
Less, less of self each day,
And more, my God, of Thee;
O keep me in the way,
However rough it be!

3 Less of the flesh each day,
Less of the world and sin;
More of Thy Son, I pray,
More of Thyself within.
More molded to Thy will,
Lord, let Thy servant be;
Higher and higher still,
More, and still more, like Thee!

THE CHRISTIAN HYMNAL.

FREDERICK. 11s.

GEO. KINGSLEY.

569

11s.

W. A. MUHLENBERG.

- 1 I would not live always; I ask not to stay
Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way;
The few cloudy mornings that dawn on us here
Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer.
- 2 I would not live always: no; welcome the tomb;
Since Jesus has lain there, I dread not its gloom;
There sweet be my rest, till He bid me arise
To hail Him in triumph descending the skies.
- 3 Who, who would live always away from his God,
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode?
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns;
- 4 Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet;
While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul!

11s.

UNKNOWN.

- 1 WHILE looking to Jesus, my heart can not fear;
I tremble no more when I see Jesus near;
I know that His presence my safeguard will be,
For "Why are you troubled?" He saith unto me.
- 2 Still looking to Jesus, O may I be found,
When Jordan's dark waters encompass me round!
They bear me away, in His presence to be;
I see Him still nearer whom always I see.
- 3 Then, then shall I know the full beauty and grace
Of Jesus, my Lord, when I stand face to face;
Shall know how His love went before me each day,
And wonder that ever my eyes turn'd away.

'Mid scenes of con - fusion and creature complaints, How sweet to my soul is com - mun - ion with saints; To find at the banquet of mer - cy there's room, And feel in the presence of Je - sus at home! Home, home, sweet, sweet home; D. S. Pro - pare me, dear Saviour, for gle - ry, my home.

11s.

DAVID DENHAM.

- 1 'Mid scenes of confusion and creature complaints,
How sweet to my soul is communion with saints;
To find at the banquet of mercy there's room,
And feel in the presence of Jesus at home!
- 2 Sweet bonds, that unite all the children of peace;
And thrice blessed Jesus, whose love can not cease;
Though oft from Thy presence in sadness I roam,
I long to behold Thee in glory at home.
- 3 While here in the valley of conflict I stray,
O give me submission and strength as my day;
In all my afflictions to Thee would I come,
Rejoicing in hope of my glorious home.
- 4 I long, dearest Lord, in Thy beauty to shine,
No more as an exile in sorrow to pine;
And in Thy dear image arise from the tomb,
With glorified millions to praise Thee at home.

SARDIS. 8s & 7s.

BEETHOVEN.

Saviour, breathe an evening blessing, Ere repose our eyelids seal, Sin and want we come confessing; Thou canst save, and Thou canst heal.

572

8s & 7s.

J. EDMISTON.

- 1 SAVIOUR! breathe an evening blessing,
Ere repose our eyelids seal;
Sin and want we come confessing;
Thou canst save, and Thou canst heal.
- 2 Though destruction walk around us,
Though the arrows past us fly,
Angel-guards from Thee surround us—
We are safe if Thou art nigh.
- 3 Though the night be dark and dreary,
Darkness can not hide from Thee;
Thou art He who, never weary,
Watcheth where Thy people be.
- 4 Should swift death this night o'ertake us,
And our couch become our tomb,
May the morn in heav'n awake us,
Clad in bright and deathless bloom.

THE CHRISTIAN HYMNAL.

STRENGTH. 11s.

J. H. WILLMORE.

Come, saints! let us join in the praise of the Lamb, The theme most sublime of the angels a-bove;
They dwell with delight on the sound of His name, And gaze on His glories with wonder and love.

11s.

MARIA DE FLEURY.

- 1 COME, saints! let us join in the praise of the Lamb,
The theme most sublime of the angels above;
They dwell with delight on the sound of His name,
And gaze on His glories with wonder and love.
- 2 They worship the Lamb who for sinners was slain;
But their loftiest songs never equal His love;
The claims of His mercy will ever remain,
Transcending the anthems in glory above.
- 3 Yet even our service He will not despise,
When we join in His worship and tell of His name;
Then let us unite in the song of the skies,
And, trusting His mercy, sing, "Worthy the Lamb!"

574

11s.

KNOX.

- 1 ACQUAINT thee, O mortal! acquaint thee with God,
And joy, like the sunshine, shall beam on thy road;
And peace, like the dew-drop, shall fall on thy head;
And sleep, like an angel, shall visit thy bed.
- 2 Acquaint thee, O mortal! acquaint thee with God,
And He shall be with thee when fears are abroad;
Thy safeguard in danger that threatens thy path;
Thy joy in the valley and shadow of death.

- 1 DELAY not, delay not, O sinner! draw near,
 The waters of life are now flowing for thee;
 No price is demanded, the Saviour is here,
 Redemption is purchas'd—salvation is free.
- 2 Delay not, delay not! why longer abuse
 The love and compassion of Jesus our Lord?
 A fountain is open'd—how canst thou refuse
 To wash and be cleans'd in His pardoning blood?
- 3 Delay not, delay not, O sinner, to come!
 For mercy still lingers, and calls thee to-day;
 Her voice is not heard in the vale of the tomb;
 Her message, unheeded, will soon pass away.
- 4 Delay not, delay not! the Spirit of grace,
 Long griev'd and resisted, entreats thee to come;
 Beware, lest in darkness thou finish thy race,
 And sink to the vale of eternity's gloom.

576

- 1 THE Lord is my Shepherd, no want shall I know;
 I feed in green pastures, safe folded I rest;
 He leadeth my soul where the still waters flow,
 Restores me when wand'ring, redeems when oppress'd.
- 2 Through the valley and shadow of death though I stray,
 Since Thou art my guardian, no evil I fear;
 Thy rod shall defend me, Thy staff be my stay;
 No harm can befall, with my Comforter near.
- 3 In the midst of affliction my table is spread;
 With blessings unmeasur'd my cup runneth o'er;
 With perfume and oil Thou anointest my head;
 O what shall I ask of Thy providence more?
- 4 Let goodness and mercy, my bountiful God!
 Still follow my steps till I meet Thee above;
 I seek, by the path which my forefathers trod,
 Through the land of their sojourn, Thy kingdom of love.

When will peace wreath her chain
Round us forever?
Our hearts will ne'er repose,
Safe from each blast that blows
In this dark vale of woes;
Never, no, never!
- 2 When shall love freely flow,
Pure as life's river?
When shall sweet friendship glow,
Changeless forever?

- Where joys celestial thrill,
Where bliss each heart shall fill,
And fears of parting chill
Never, no, never!
- 3 Up to that world of light
Take us, dear Saviour;
May we all there unite,
Happy forever;
Where kindred spirits dwell,
There may our music swell,
And time our joys dispel
Never, no, never!

GO TO THE GRAVE. 10s.

T. J. COOK.

Go to the grave in all thy glorious prime, In full ac-tiv-i-ty of zeal and pow'r;
A Christian can not die be-fore his time; The Lord's appointment is the servant's hour.

- 1 Go to the grave in all thy glorious prime,
In full activity of zeal and pow'r;
A Christian can not die before his time;
The Lord's appointment is the servants hour.
- 2 Go to the grave; at noon from labor cease;
Rest on thy sheaves; the harvest task is done;
Come from the heat of battle, and in peace,
Soldier, go home; with thee the fight is won.
- 3 Go to the grave; for thee thy Saviour lay
In death's embrace, ere He arose on high;
And all the ransom'd, by that narrow way,
Pass to eternal life beyond the sky.
- 4 Go to the grave—no; take thy seat above;
Be thy pure spirit present with the Lord,
Where thou for faith and hope hast perfect love,
And open vision for the written word.

1 STAR of morn and even,
Sun of Heaven's heaven,
Saviour high and dear,
Toward us turn Thine ear;
Through whate'er may come,
Thou canst lead us home.

2 Though the night be grievous,
And our courage leave us;
Though our trembling heart
Fail to do its part;
Though the tempter come,
Bring us safely home.

3 Saviour, pure and holy,
Leader of the lowly,
We devoutly pray,
Keep us in the way;
In Thy kindness come,
Lead Thy children home.

4 Star of morn and even,
Shine on us from heaven;
From Thy glory-throne
Hear Thy very own!
Lord and Saviour, come,
Lead us to our home!

1 In the Christian's home in glory
There remains a land of rest;
There my Saviour's gone before me,
To fulfill my soul's request. —CHO.

3 Pain or sickness ne'er shall enter,
Grief nor woe my lot shall share;
But in that celestial center
I a crown of life shall wear. —CHO.

2 He is fitting up my mansion,
Which eternally shall stand,
For my stay shall not be transient
In that holy, happy land. —CHO.

4 Death itself shall then be vanquish'd,
And his sting shall be withdrawn;
Shout for gladness, O ye ransom'd,
Hail with joy the rising morn. —CHO.

2d verse.

Father, have mercy, Father, have mercy, Fa-ther, have mercy, thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. A-men.

591

SELINA BUNTINGTON.

- 1 FADING, still fading, the last beam is shining;
 Father in heaven! the day is declining;
 Safety and innocence flee with the light,
 Temptation and danger walk forth with the night;
 From the fall of the shade till the morning bells chime,
 Shield us from danger, keep us from crime.
- 2 Father in heaven! O hear when we call;
 Hear, for Christ's sake, who is Saviour of all;
 Feeble and fainting, we trust in Thy might,
 In doubting and darkness Thy love be our light;
 Let us sleep on Thy breast while the night taper burns,
 Wake in Thy arms when morning returns. Amen.

Now, while the prince of darkness rages in his madness,
O Sun of righteousness, Thy cheering beams display,
Dawn on the earth, and bring the glorious day.
- 2 O Father, let Thy blessing, with Thy saints abounding,
Fill every breast with zeal, the gospel to proclaim;
O sing, Jerusalem, thy gates with joy surrounding,
While distant isles rejoice in Jesus' name.
Watchmen of Zion, sound aloud the note of warning,
Till earth's benighted nations hail the glorious morning;
O Sun of righteousness, Thy cheering beams display,
Dawn on the earth, and bring the glorious day.
- 3 Deep is the desolation of the race benighted,
Fast bound in ignorance, o'erwhelm'd with guilt and fear;
Folly and superstition every hope have blighted,
Save where the rays of truth divine appear.
Haste, haste, ye messengers, reveal the wondrous story,
Tell of the cross, and of the coming tide of glory;
Then, Sun of righteousness, Thy cheering beams display,
Dawn on the earth, and bring the glorious day.

LET EVERY HEART REJOICE. P. M.

GEO. J. WEBB.

Let ev-ery heart re-joice and sing, Let cho-ral an-thems rise;
Ye rev-erend men and chil-dren, bring To God your sac-ri-fice.

Chorus.

For He is good, the Lord is good, And kind are all His ways, With songs and hon-ors sound-ing loud, The Lord Je-ho-vah praise, While the rocks and the rills,

While the vales and the hills, A glo-rious an-them raise; Let each pro-long the grate-ful song, And the God of our fa-thers praise, And the God of our fa-thers praise.

P. M.

WASHBURNE.

1 Let every heart rejoice and sing;
Let choral anthems rise;
Ye rev'rend men and children, bring
To God your sacrifice.

Cho.—For He is good, the Lord is good,
And kind are all His ways;
With songs and honors sounding loud,
The Lord Jehovah praise;

While the rocks and the rills,
While the vales and the hills,
A glorious anthem raise,
Let each prolong the grateful song,
And the God of our fathers praise.

2 He bids the sun to rise and set;
In heav'n His pow'r is known;
And earth, subdued to Him, shall yet
Bow low before His throne.—Cho.

Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died;
Land of the pilgrim's pride;
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

2 My native country! thee,
Land of the noble free,
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song;
Let mortal tongues awake,
Let all that breathe partake,
Let rocks their silence break,
The sound prolong.

4 Our fathers' God! to Thee,
Author of liberty!
To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King!

Our journey pursue—
Roll round with the year,
And never stand still till the Master ap-pear;
His adorable will
Let us gladly fulfill,
And our talents improve
By the patience of hope, and the labor of love.
- The arrow is flown;
The moment is gone,
The millennial year
Rushes on to our view, and eternity's near.
- 2 Our life is a dream;
Our time, as a stream,
Glides swiftly away,
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay;

1 THE God of harvest praise;
In loud thanksgiving raise
Hand, heart, and voice;
The valleys smile and sing,
Forests and mountains ring;
The plains their tribute bring;
The streams rejoice.

2 Hence, gloomy doubts and fears!
Dry up your mournful tears;
Swell the glad theme;
To Christ, our gracious King,
Strike each melodious string;
Join heart and voice to sing,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

2 Yes, bless His holy name,
And purest thanks proclaim
Through all the earth;
To glory in your lot
Is duty—but be not
God's benefits forgot,
Amidst your mirth.

3 Hark! how the choirs above,
Filled with the Saviour's love,
Dwell on His name!
There, too, may we be found,
With light and glory crown'd,
While all the heav'ns resound,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

3 The God of harvest praise;
Hands, hearts, and voices raise

Bless ye the Lord.

1 KINDRED in Christ, for His dear sake
A hearty welcome here receive;
May we together now partake
The joys which only He can give.

2 May He, by whose kind care we meet,
Send His good Spirit from above;
Make our communications sweet,
And cause our hearts to burn with love.

3 Forgotten be each worldly theme,
When Christians meet together thus;
We only wish to speak of Him
Who lived, and died, and reigns for us.

We'll love, and wonder, and adore;
And hasten on the glorious day
When we shall meet to part no more.

1 To-DAY, if you will hear His voice,
Now is the time to make your choice;
Say, will you to Mount Zion go?
Say, will you come to Christ or no?

2 Say, will you be forever blest,
And with this glorious Jesus rest?
Will you be saved from guilt and pain?
Will you with Christ forever reign?

3 Make now your choice, and halt no more;
He now is waiting for the poor;
Say, now, poor souls, what will you do?
Say, will you come to Christ or no?

4 Fathers and sons, for ruin bound,
Amidst the gospel's joyful sound,
Come, go with us, and seek to prove
The joys of Christ's redeeming love.

5 Matrons and maids, we look to you,
Are you resolv'd to perish, too?
*To rush in carnal pleasures on,
And sink in flaming ruin down?*

6 Once more we ask you, in His name
(We know His love remains the same),
Say, will you to Mount Zion go?
Say, will you come to Christ or no?

1 THUS far the Lord has led me on;
Thus far His pow'r prolongs my days;
And every evening shall make known
Some fresh memorial of His grace.

2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home;
But He forgives my follies past;
He gives me strength for days to come.

3 I lay my body down to sleep;
Peace is the pillow for my head;
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.

My flesh shall rest beneath the ground,
And wait Thy voice to rouse my tomb,
With sweet salvation in the sound.

'Tis for our light and guidance giv'n;
It sheds a luster all abroad,
And points the path to bliss and heav'n.

3 It fills the soul with sweet delight,
And quickens its inactive pow'rs;
It sets our wand'ring footsteps right,
Displays Thy love and kindles ours.

Saviour, from Thy throne on high,
enrob'd with light, and girt with pow'r,
dost note the thought, the pray'r, the sigh,
of hearts that love the tranquil hour.
Thou thyself didst steal away,
eventide, from labor done,
come still, peaceful shade to pray,
all morning watches were begun.
Thou hast not, dearest Lord, forgot
my wrestlings on Judea's hills;
still Thou lov'st the quiet spot
here praise the lowly spirit fills.
Bow to our souls, withdrawn awhile
from earth's rudenoise, Thy face reveal,
as we worship, kindly smile,
and for Thine own our spirits seal.

1 THE great Redeemer we adore,
Who came the lost to seek and save,
Went humbly down from Jordan's shore,
To find a tomb beneath its wave!
2 We sink beneath the mystic flood;
O bathe us in Thy cleansing blood!
We die to sin, and seek a grave
With Thee beneath the yielding wave.
3 With Thee, into Thy wat'ry tomb,
Lord, 'tis our glory to descend;
'Tis wondrous grace that gives us room
To share the grave of such a Friend.
4 And as we rise, with Thee to live,
O let the Holy Spirit give
The sealing unction from above,
The breath of life, the fire of love!

Wash'd all my sins away.

3 O Lamb of God! Thy precious blood
Shall never lose its pow'r,
Till all the ransom'd Church of God
Are sav'd, to sin no more.

4 Ere since by faith I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.

5 And when this lisping, stamm'ring tongue
Lies silent in the grave,
Then, in a nobler, sweeter song,
I'll sing Thy pow'r to save.

Are in the gospel found,
Suited to every sinner's case
Who hears the joyful sound!

Your every burden bring; [wounds,
Here love, unchanging love, abounds—
A deep, celestial spring.

And heav'nly joy imparts;
Come, thirsty souls! your wants disclose,

1 Am I a soldier of the cross,
A foll'wer of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own His cause,
Or blush to speak His name?

2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flow'ry beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?

3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?

4 Sure I must fight if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord!
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by Thy word.

5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer, though they die;
They see the triumph from afar,
With Hope's exulting eye.

6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all Thine armies shine
In robes of vict'ry through the skies,
The glory shall be Thine.

1 I'm not ashamed to own my Lord,
Nor to defend His cause,
Maintain the honor of His word,
The glory of His cross.

2 Jesus, my Lord, I know His name,
His name is all my trust;
Nor will He put my soul to shame,
Nor let my hope be lost.

3 Firm as His throne His promise stands,
And He can well secure
What I've committed to His hands
Till the decisive hour.

4 Then will He own my worthless name
Before His Father's face,
And in the new Jerusalem
Appoint for me a place.

A heart from sin set free!
A heart that always feels the blood
So freely shed for me!
- 2 A heart resign'd, submissive, meek—
My great Redeemer's throne—
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone.
- 3 O for a lowly, contrite heart,
Confiding, true, and clean,
Which neither life nor death can part
From Him that dwells within!
- 4 A heart in every thought renew'd,
And full of love divine,
Perfect and right, and pure and good,
A copy, Lord, of Thine!
- 5 Thy Spirit, gracious Lord, impart;
Direct me from above;
May Thy dear name be near my heart—
That dear, best name is Love.

- Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.
- 4 O give us hearts to love like Thee!
Like Thee, O Lord, to grieve
Far more for others' sins than all
The wrongs that we receive.

In us, Thy brethren, see
The gentleness and grace that spring
From union, Lord, with Thee.

Whatever may oppose.
- 3 Humbly I'll bow at His command,
And there my guilt confess;
And now I am a wretch undone,
Without His sov'reign grace.
- 4 Surely He will accept my plea,
For He has bid me come;
Forthwith I'll rise, and to Him flee,
For yet, He says, there's room.

2 When each can feel his brother's sigh,
And with him bear a part;
When sorrow flows from eye to eye,
And joy from heart to heart;

There shall my zeal perform the vows
My soul, in anguish, made.

3 When free from envy, scorn, and pride,
Our wishes all above,
Each can His brother's failing hide,
And show a brother's love;

3 How happy all Thy servants are!
How great Thy grace to me!
My life, which Thou hast made Thy care,
Lord, I devote to Thee.

4 When love in one delightful stream
Through every bosom flows;
When union sweet and dear esteem
In every action glows!

Remember, you must watch and pray
While journeying on the road,
Lest you should fall out by the way,

RAY PALMER.

1 JESUS, Lamb of God, for me
Thou, the Lord of life, didst die;
Whither—whither, but to Thee,
Can a trembling sinner fly?
||:Death's dark waters o'er me roll;
Save, O save my sinking soul!:

2 All my soul, by love subdued,
Melts in deep contrition there;
By Thy mighty grace renew'd,
New-born hope forbids despair;
||:Lord, thou canst my guilt forgive;
Thou hast bid me look and live.:

3 While with broken heart I kneel,
Sinks the inward storm to rest;
Life, immortal life, I feel
Kindled in my throbbing breast;
||:Thine, forever Thine, I am;
Glory to the bleeding Lamb!:

||:Shun not suffering, shame, or loss;
Learn of Him to bear the cross.:

3 Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
There, admiring at His feet,
Mark that miracle of time—
God's own sacrifice complete;
||:“It is finish'd!” hear Him cry;
Learn of Jesus Christ to die.:

656

7s.

J. MONTGOMERY.

1 Go to dark Gethsemane,
Ye that feel the tempter's pow'r;
Your Redeemer's conflict see;
Watch with Him one bitter hour;
||:Turn not from His griefs away;
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.:

2 Follow to the judgment-hall;
View the Lord of life arraign'd!
O the wormwood and the gall!
O the pangs His soul sustain'd!

1 EARTH, with her ten thousand flow'rs,
Air, with all its beams and show'rs,
Ocean's infinite expanse,
Heav'n's resplendent countenance,
||:All around, and all above,
Hath this record—God is love.:

2 Sounds among the vales and hills,
In the woods, and by the rills,
Of the breeze, and of the bird,
By the gentle murmur stirr'd:
||:All these songs, beneath, above,
Have one burden—God is love.:

3 All the hopes and fears that start
From the fountain of the heart,
All the quiet bliss that lies
In our human sympathies:
||:These are voices from above,
Sweetly whispering, God is love.:

1 My faith looks up to Thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine!
Now hear me while I pray;
Take all my guilt away:
O let me, from this day,
Be wholly Thine!

2 May Thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As Thou hast died for me,
O may my love to Thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be—
A living fire!

3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be Thou my guide;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From Thee aside.

4 When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold, sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll,
Blest Saviour, then, in love,
Fear and distress remove;
O bear me safe above—
A ransom'd soul!

O sacred Calvary,
Love fills my breast.
Flow, then, the joyous tears;
Flee, all my guilty fears;
Saviour! Thy cross appears,
And I find rest.

2 When from Thy bleeding side
I see the crimson tide
Streaming for me,
Faith in Thy flowing blood,
O spotless Lamb of God,
Points from this dark abode,
Upward to Thee.

3 When death's unsparing dart
Pierces my fainting heart,
Sweetly I'll sing:
Grave! thou no terror hast;
All fearful gloom is past;
Victor through Christ at last,
Death has no sting!

1 SOUND, sound the truth abroad!
Bear ye the word of God
Through the wide world;
Tell what our Lord has done,
Tell how the day is won,
Tell from His lofty throne
Satan is hurl'd.

2 Far over sea and land,
Go, at your Lord's command;
Bear ye His name;
Bear it to every shore,
Regions unknown explore,
Enter at every door;
Silence is shame.

3 Speed on the wings of love;
Jesus, who reigns above,
Bids us to fly;
They who His message bear
Should neither doubt nor fear;
He will their Friend appear,
He will be nigh.

2 Victor o'er death and hell!
Cherubic legions swell
Thy radiant train;
Praises all heav'n inspire;
Each angel sweeps his lyre,
And waves his wings of fire,
Thou Lamb once slain!

3 Enter, incarnate God!
No feet but Thine have trod
The serpent down;
Blow the full trumpets—blow!
Wider yon portals throw!
Saviour, triumphant go,
And take Thy crown!

4 Lion of Judah, hail!
And let Thy name prevail
From age to age;
Lord of the rolling years,
Claim for Thine own the spheres,
For Thou hast bought with tears
Thy heritage.

1 FROM Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand;
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle—
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile!
In vain, with lavish kindness,
The gifts of God are strewn;
The heathen, in their blindness,
Bow down to wood and stone.

3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
By wisdom from on high—
Shall we, to man benighted,
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation! O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learn'd Messiah's name.

4 Waft—waft, ye winds, His story;
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole;

Till, o'er our ransom'd nature,
The Lamb, for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

And be the shout, "Hosanna!"

Till every tribe and tongue,
Receive the great salvation,
And join the happy throng.

2 What though th' embattled legions
Of earth and hell combine,
His pow'r throughout their regions
Shall soon resplendent shine.
Ride on, O Lord, victorious,
Immanuel, Prince of peace!
Thy triumph shall be glorious,
Thine empire still increase.

3 Yes, Thou shalt reign forever,
O Jesus, King of kings!
Thy light, Thy love, Thy favor,
Each ransom'd captive sings;
The isles for Thee are waiting,
The deserts learn Thy praise;
The hills and valleys, greeting,
The song responsive raise.

- 1 O WHEN shall I see Jesus,
And dwell with Him above,
To drink the flowing fountain
Of everlasting love?
When shall I be deliver'd
From this vain world of sin?
And with my blessed Jesus
Drink endless pleasures in?
- 2 But now I am a soldier,
My Captain's gone before;
He's given me my orders,
And tells me not to fear.
And if I hold out faithful.
A crown of life He'll give;
And all His valiant soldiers
Eternal life shall have.
- 3 Through grace I am determin'd
To conquer, though I die;
And then away to Jesus
On wings of love I'll fly.
Farewell to sin and sorrow—
I bid them both adieu;
And you, my friends, prove faithful,
And still your way pursue.
- 4 O do not be discourag'd,
For Jesus is your Friend;
And if you long for knowledge,
On Him you may depend;
Neither will He upbraid you,
Though often you request;
He'll give you grace to conquer,
And take you home to rest.

- 1 STAND up!—stand up for Jesus!
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high His royal banner,
It must not suffer loss;
From vict'ry unto vict'ry
His army shall He lead,
Till every foe is vanquish'd,
And Christ is Lord indeed.
- 2 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict,
In this His glorious day;
"Ye that are men, now serve Him,"
Against unnumber'd foes;
Let courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.
- 3 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
Stand in His strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you—
Ye dare not trust your own;
Put on the gospel armor,
And, watching unto pray'r,
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.
- 4 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!
The strife will not be long;
This day, the noise of battle;
The next, the victor's song.
To him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of glory
Shall reign eternally.

Wounded, impotent, and blind;
Here the guilty find remission—
Here the lost a refuge find:
Health this fountain will restore;
He that drinks shall thirst no more.

Bruis'd and mangled by the fall,
If you tarry till you're better,
You will never come at all;
Not the righteous—
Sinners, Jesus came to call.

4 Agonizing in the garden,
Lo! your Saviour prostrate lies!
On the bloody tree behold Him!
Hear Him cry before He dies.
"It is finished!"
Sinners, will not this suffice?

5 Lo! the rising Lord, ascending,
Pleads the virtue of His blood:
Venture on Him, venture freely,
Let no other trust intrude;
None but Jesus
Can do helpless sinners good.

MAY the grace of Christ, our Saviour,
And the Father's boundless love,
With the Holy Spirit's favor,
Rest upon us from above.

And possess, in sweet communion,
Joys which earth can not afford.

4 Man may trouble and distress me,
'Twill but drive me to Thy breast;
Life with trials hard may press me,
Heav'n will bring me sweeter rest.
O 'tis not in grief to harm me,
While Thy love is left to me;
O 'twere not in joy to charm me,

ay hate, and friends may shun me,
Thy face and all is bright.

1 Know, my soul, thy full salvation,
Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care;
Joy to find in every station
Something still to do or bear.
Think what Spirit dwells within thee;
What a Father's smile is thine;
What a Saviour died to win thee:
Child of heav'n, shouldst thou repine?

hen, earthly fame and treasure!
e, disaster, scorn, and pain!
service pain is pleasure;
Thy favor loss is gain.
call'd Thee, Abba, Father;
ve stayed my heart on Thee;
may howl, and clouds may gather,
must work for good to me.

2 Haste thee on from grace to glory,
Arm'd by faith and wing'd by pray'r;
Heav'n's eternal day's before thee,
God's own hand shall guide thee there.
Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
Swift shall pass thy pilgrim days;
Hope soon change to glad fruition,

1 NEARER, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee;
E'en though it be a cross
That raiseth me;
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

2 Though like the wanderer,
Day-light all gone,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

3 There let the way appear
Steps unto heav'n;
All that Thou sendest me,
In mercy giv'n;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

4 Then, with my waking thoughts
Bright with Thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to Thee—
Nearer to Thee.

5 Or, if on joyful wing,
Cleaving the sky—
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly;
Still all my song shall be—
Nearer, my God, to Thee,
Nearer to Thee.

GEO. KEITH.

- 1 How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in His excellent word!
What more can He say than to you He has said,
You who unto Jesus for refuge have fled?
- 2 In every condition, in sickness, in health,
In poverty's vale, or abounding in wealth;
At home and abroad, on the land, on the sea—
As your days may demand, so your succor shall be.
- 3 Fear not: I am with you; O be not dismay'd!
I, I am your God, and will still give you aid;
I'll strengthen you, help you, and cause you to stand,
Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.
- 4 When through the deep waters I cause you to go,
The rivers of sorrow shall not you o'erflow;
For I will be with you, your troubles to bless,
And sanctify to you your deepest distress.
- 5 When through fiery trials your pathway shall lie,
My grace, all-sufficient, shall be your supply;
The flame shall not hurt you; I only design
Your dross to consume, and your gold to refine.
- 6 E'en down to old age all my people shall prove
My sov'reign, eternal, unchangeable love;
And when hoary hairs shall their temples adorn,
Like lambs they shall still in my bosom be borne.

Where Christians draw near to their Father and God!
'Mid worldly commotion my wearied soul pants
For the house of devotion, the home of Thy saints.

Where Christians repair to the courts of Thy grace!
More blest beyond measure one day so employ'd,
Than years of vain pleasure by worldlings enjoy'd.

JOSIAH HOPKINS.

- 1 O TURN you! O turn you! for why will you die,
When God in His mercy is coming so nigh?
Now Jesus invites you; the Spirit says, Come,
The brethren are waiting to welcome you home.
- 2 How vain the delusion that, while you delay,
Your hearts may grow better by staying away!
Come wretched, come starving, come just as you be;
Here streams of salvation are flowing most free.
- 3 Here Jesus is ready your souls to receive;
O how can you question, since now you believe?
Since sin is your burden, why will you not come?
He now bids you welcome—he now says there's room.
- 4 In riches, in pleasure, what can you obtain,
To soothe your affliction, or banish your pain?
To bear up your spirit, when summoned to die,
Or waft you to mansions of glory on high?

I have found in the blood of the Lamb!
Since the truth I believ'd, what a joy I've receiv'd,
What a heaven in Jesus' blest name!
- 3 'Tis a heaven below my Redeemer to know;
And the angels can do nothing more
Than to fall at His feet, and the story repeat,
And the lover of sinners adore!

O that all to this refuge may fly!
He has lov'd me, I cried, He has suffer'd and died
To redeem such a rebel as I!
- 5 On the wings of His love I am carried above
All my sin, and temptation, and pain;
O why should I grieve, while on Him I believe?
O why should I sorrow again?
- 6 O the rapturous height of that holy delight,
Which I find in the life-giving blood!
Of my Saviour possess'd, I am perfectly bless'd,
Being fill'd with the fullness of God!
- 7 Now my remnant of days will I spend to His praise
Who has died me from sin to redeem;
Whether many or few, all my years are His due;
They shall all be devoted to Him.
- 8 What a mercy is this! what a heaven of bliss!
How unspeakably happy am I!
Gather'd into the fold, with believers enroll'd—
With believers to live and to die!

Purer in heart
Help me to be.

- 2 Purer in heart, O God,
Help me to be;
Teach me to do Thy will
Most lovingly.
Be Thou my Friend and Guide,
Let me with Thee abide;
Purer in heart
Help me to be.
- 3 Purer in heart, O God,
Help me to be;
That I Thy holy face
One day may see.
Keep me from secret sin,
Reign Thou my soul within;
Purer in heart
Help me to be.

THE CHRISTIAN HYMNAL.

I BRING MY SINS TO THEE. 6s & 8s. 6 lines.

P. F. BLISS.

of J. Church & Co.

I bring my sins to Thee, The sins I can not count, That all may cleansed be In Thy once open'd Fount;

By permission

I bring them, Saviour, all to Thee; The burden is too great for me, The burden is too great for me.

715

6s & 8s. 6l.

MISS. F. R. HAVERGAL.

1 I BRING my sins to Thee,
The sins I can not count,
That all may cleansed be
In Thy once open'd Fount;
I bring them, Saviour, all to Thee;
The burden is too great for me.

2 I bring my grief to Thee,
The grief I can not tell;
No words shall needed be,
Thou knowest all so well;
I bring the sorrow laid on me,
O suffering Saviour, all to Thee.

3 My joys to Thee I bring,
The joys Thy love has giv'n,
That each may be a wing
To lift me nearer heav'n;
I bring them, Saviour, all to Thee,
Who hast procur'd them all for me.

4 My life I bring to Thee;
I would not be my own;
O Saviour, let me be
Thine ever, Thine alone;
My heart, my life, my all I bring
To Thee, my Saviour and my King.

PASS ME NOT. 8s & 5s, with Chorus.

W. H. DOANE.

in "Songs of Devotion."

Pass me not, O gentle Saviour! Hear my humble cry, While on others Thou art smiling, Do not pass me by.

Chorus.

Saviour, Sav-iour, hear my humble cry!

716

8s & 5s.

F. C. VAN ALSTYNE.

1 PASS me not, O gentle Saviour!
Hear my humble cry;
While on others Thou art smiling,
Do not pass me by.—CHO.

2 Let me at Thy throne of mercy
Find a sweet relief;
Kneeling there in deep contrition,
Help my unbelief.—CHO.

3 Trusting only in Thy merit,
Would I seek Thy face;
Heal my wounded, broken spirit,
Save me by Thy grace.—CHO.

4 Thou the Spring of all my comfort,
More than life to me,
Whom on earth have I beside Thee,
Whom in heav'n but Thee?—CHO.

WORK SONG. 7s, 6s & 5s.

LOWELL MASON. Fine.

Work, for the night is com - ing, Work thro' the morning hours; Work while the dew is spark - ling, Work 'mid springing flow'rs;
D. S. Work, for the night is com - ing, When man's work is done.

Work when the day grows brighter, Work in the glowing sun;

717 7s, 6s & 5s. SIDNEY DYER.

1 WORK, for the night is coming,
Work through the morning hours;
Work while the dew is sparkling,
Work 'mid springing flow'rs;
Work when the day grows brighter,
Work in the glowing sun;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man's work is done.

2 Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor,
Rest comes sure and soon.
Give every flying moment
Something to keep in store;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for daylight flies.
Work till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine no more;
Work while the day is dark'ning,
When man's work is o'er.

WHAT HAST THOU DONE FOR ME? 6s & 8.

F. P. BLISS.

I gave My life for thee, My precious blood I shed, That thou might'st ransom'd be, And quicken'd from the dead:

I gave, I gave My life for thee, What hast thou giv'n for Me?

718 6s & 8. MISS F. R. HAVERGAL.

1 I GAVE My life for thee,
My precious blood I shed,
That thou might'st ransom'd be,
And quicken'd from the dead;
I gave, I gave My life for Thee;
What hast thou giv'n for Me?

2 My Father's house of light—
My glory-circled throne—

I left, for earthly night,
For wand'rings sad and lone;
I left, I left it all for thee;
Hast thou left aught for Me?

3 I suffer'd much for thee,
More than thy tongue can tell,
Of bitt'rest agony,
To rescue thee from hell;
I've borne, I've borne it all for thee;
What hast thou borne for Me?

4 And I have brought to thee,
Down from My home above,
Salvation full and free,
My pardon and My love;
I bring, I bring rich gifts to thee;
What hast thou brought to Me?

8s & 4.

UNKNOWN.

1 LEANING on Thee, my Guide and Friend,
My gracious Saviour! I am blest;
Though weary, Thou dost condescend
To be my rest.

2 Leaning on Thee with childlike faith,
To Thee the future I confide;
Each step of life's untrodden path
Thy love will guide.

18

3 Leaning on Thee, I breathe no moan,
Tho' faint with hunger, parch'd with heat;
Thy will has now become my own:
That will is sweet.

4 Leaning on Thee, no fear alarms;
Calmly I stand on death's dark brink;
I feel the everlasting arms,
And can not sink.

PRECIOUS NAME. 8s & 7s, with Chorus.

W. M. DOANE.

Take the name of Je-sus with you, Child of sor-row and of woe; It will joy and comfort give you; Take it, then, where'er you go. Precious name, O how sweet, Precious name, O how sweet, Hope of earth and joy of heav'n; Precious name, O how sweet, Hope of earth and joy of heav'n! - 1 TAKE the name of Jesus with you,
Child of sorrow and of woe;
It will joy and comfort give you;
Take it, then, where'er you go.—CHO.
- 2 Take the name of Jesus ever,
As a shield from every snare;
If temptations round you gather,
Breathe that holy name in pray'r.—CHO.
- 3 O the precious name of Jesus!
How it thrills our souls with joy,
When His loving arms receive us,
And His songs our tongues employ!—CHO.
- 4 At the name of Jesus bowing,
Falling prostrate at His feet,
King of kings in heav'n we'll crown Him,
When our journey is complete.—CHO.

Pleading for me,
My feeble faith looks up,
Jesus, to Thee.

- Help me the cross to bear,
Thy wondrous love declare,
Some song to raise, or pray'r;
Something for Thee.
3 Give me a faithful heart—
Likeness to Thee—
That each departing day
Henceforth may see
Some work of love begun,
Some deed of kindness done,
Some wand'rer sought and won,—
Something for Thee.

8s & 5s.

MRS. M. A. KIDDER.

1 Ere you left your room this morning
Did you think to pray?
In the name of Christ, our Saviour,
Did you sue for loving favor,
As a shield to-day?—Cho.

2 When you met with great temptation
Did you think to pray?
By His dying love and merit,
Did you claim the Holy Spirit
As your guide and stay?—Cho.

3 When your heart was fill'd with anger,
Did you think to pray?
Did you plead for grace, my brother,
That you might forgive another
Who had cross'd your way?—Cho.

All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Every thing to God in pray'r!
O what peace we often forfeit,
O what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry
Every thing to God in pray'r!

2 Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discourag'd—
Take it to the Lord in pray'r.
Can we find a friend so faithful,
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness—
Take it to the Lord in pray'r.

FLEE, AS A BIRD. P. M.

And help me to make a complete sacrifice;
I give up myself, and whatever I know;
Now wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.—CHO.
- 3 Lord Jesus, for this I most humbly entreat;
I wait, blessed Lord, at Thy crucified feet;
By faith, for my cleansing, I see Thy blood flow;
Now wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.—CHO.
- 4 Lord Jesus, Thou seest I patiently wait;
Come now, and within me a new heart create;
To those who have sought Thee, Thou never said'st No;
Now wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.—CHO.

1 WHEN we hear the music ringing
In the bright celestial dome,
When sweet angel voices, singing,
Gladly bid us welcome home
To the land of ancient story,
Where the spirit knows no care;
In that land of light and glory,
Shall we know each other there?—CHO.

2 When the holy angels meet us,
As we go to join their band,
Shall we know the friends that greet us
In the glorious spirit land?
Shall we see the same eyes shining
On us as in days of yore?
Shall we feel their dear arms twining
Fondly round us as before?—CHO.

3 Yes, my earth-worn soul rejoices,
And my weary heart grows light;
For the sweet and cheerful voices,
And the forms so pure and bright,
That shall welcome us in heaven,
Are the loved of long ago;
And to them 'tis kindly given,
Thus their mortal friends to know.—CHO.

4 O ye weary, sad, and toss'd ones,
Droop not, faint not by the way;
Ye shall join the loved and just ones
In the land of perfect day.
Harp-strings touch'd by angel fingers,
Murmur'd in my raptur'd ear—
Evermore their sweet song lingers—
We shall know each other there.—CHO.

Will the dark waters sweep you away? Leaving nothing but death and despair.

3 We are hastening homeward to join the band,*

One by one, one by one;

Who have enter'd their rest in the better land,

Yes, one by one.

With angels we'll sweep through the pearly gates

Of the city where Christ, the forerunner, waits,

And join, with the millions around the white throne,

In hymning the praise of the Holy One.—Cho.

1 TARRY with me, O my Saviour,
For the day is passing by!
See, the shades of evening gather,
And the night is drawing nigh.—CHO.

3 Deeper, deeper grow the shadows,
Paler now the glowing west;
Swift the night of death advances;
Shall it be the night of rest?—CHO.

2 Many friends were gather'd round me
In the bright days of the past;
But the grave has clos'd above them,
And I linger here at last.—CHO.

4 Tarry with me, O my Saviour,
Lay my head upon Thy breast
Till the morning; then awake me—
Morning of eternal rest!—CHO.

ANNIE HERBERT.

1 WHEN the mists have roll'd in splendor
From the summit of the hills,
And the sunshine, warm and tender,
Falls in kisses on the rills,
We may read love's shining letter
In the rainbow of the spray;
We shall know each other better [CHO. Heart to heart, we bide the shadows
When the mists have clear'd away.—

3 When the mists have ris'n above us,
As our Father knows His own,
Face to face with those that love us,
We shall know as we are known;
Lo! beyond the orient meadows
Floats the golden fringe of day;
Till the mists have clear'd away.—CHO.

2 If we err in human blindness,
And forget that we are dust;
If we miss the law of kindness
When we struggle to be just,
Snowy wings of love shall cover
All the faults that hide away,
When the weary watch is over,
And the mists have clear'd away.—CHO.

4 When the silv'ry mists have veil'd us
From the faces of our own,
Oft we think their love has fail'd us,
And we tread our path alone;
We should love them well and truly,
We should trust them day by day;
Neither hate nor love unduly,
If the mists were clear'd away.—CHO.

C. M.

SAMUEL STENNETT.

1 On Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.—Cho.
2 O'er all those wide-extended plains
Shines one eternal day;
There God, the Sun, forever reigns,
And scatters night away.—Cho.

3 When shall I reach that happy place,
And be forever blest?
When shall I see my Father's face,
And in His bosom rest?—Cho.
4 Fill'd with delight, my raptur'd soul
Would here no longer stay;
Though Jordan's waves around me roll,
Fearless I'd launch away.—Cho.

HOME OF THE SOUL. 12s & 8s.

PHILIP PHILLIPS.

746

12s & 8s.

MRS. F. H. GATES.

- 1 I WILL sing you a song of the beautiful land,
The far-away home of the soul,
Where no storms ever beat on the glittering strand,
While the years of eternity roll.
- 2 O the home of the soul, in my visions and dreams,
Its bright jasper walls I can see,
Till I fancy but thinly the veil intervenes
Between the fair city and me.
- 3 There the fair tree of life in its beauty doth grow,
And the river of life floweth by;
For no death ever enters that city, you know,
And nothing that maketh a lie.
- 4 That unchangeable home is for you and for me,
Where Jesus of Nazareth stands;
The King of all kingdoms forever is He,
And He holdeth our crowns in His hands.
- 5 O how sweet it will be in that beautiful land,
So free from all sorrow and pain!
With songs on our lips and with harps in our hands.
To meet one another again!

CHANT. No. 1. (Psalm xcvi.)

WILLIAM BOYCE.

- 1 O COME, let us sing un- | to the | Lord; || Let us heartily rejoice in the | strength of | our sal- | vation.
- 3 For the Lord is a | great— | God; || And a great | King a- | bove all | gods.
- 5 The sea is His, | and He | made it; || And His hands pre- | pared | the dry | land.
- 7 For He is the | Lord, our | God; || And we are the people of His pasture, and the | sheep of | His— | hand.
- 9 For He cometh, for He cometh to | judge the | earth; || And with righteousness
to judge the world, and the | people | with His | truth.

- 2 Let us come before His presence | with thanks- | giving; || And show ourselves |
glad in | Him with | psalms.
- 4 In His hands are all the corners | of the | earth; || And the strength of the | hills is | His— | also.
- 6 O come, let us worship | and fall | down; || And kneel be- | fore the | Lord,
our | Maker.
- 8 O worship the Lord in the | beauty of | holiness; || Let the whole | earth stand
in | awe of | Him.
- 10 For He cometh, for He cometh to | judge the | earth; || And with righteousness to judge the world, and the | people | with His | truth.

CHANT. No. 2. (Psalm xxiii.)

LOWELL MASON.

- 1 THE Lord is my Shepherd; I | shall not | want; || He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the | still— | waters.
- 2 He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His | name's— | sake. || Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy | staff,
they | comfort me.
- 3 Thou preparest a table before me, in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anoint-
est my head with oil; my | cup runneth | over. || Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the |
Lord for- | ever. || Amen.

- 3 He will not suffer thy | foot to be | moved; || he that | keepeth thee | will not | slumber.
- 4 Behold, He that | keepeth | Israel || shall neither | slumber | nor — | sleep.
- 5 The Lord | is thy | keeper; || the Lord is thy shade up- | on thy | right — | hand.
- 6 The sun shall not | smite thee by | day, || nor the | moon — | by — | night.
- 7 The Lord shall preserve thee from | all — | evil; || He | shall pre- | serve thy | soul.
- 8 The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy | com - ing | in || from this time forth, and | even for | ev - er — | more.

CHANT. No. 16. (Psalm xliii.)

- 1 WE have thought of Thy loving- | kindness, O | God || in the | midst — | of Thy | temple.
- 2 According to Thy name, O God, so is Thy praise unto the | ends of the | earth; || Thy right hand is | full of | righteous- | ness.
- 3 Let Mount | Zion re- | joice; || let the daughters of Judah be | glad be- | cause of Thy | judgments.
- 4 Great is the Lord, and greatly | to be | praised || in the city of our God, in the | mountain | of His | holiness.

HYMN CHANT. No. 17.

W. L. REYNOLDS.

- 1 WITH silence only as their | ben - e- | diction, || God's | an - gels | come,
- 3 Yet would we say, what every | heart ap- | proveth, || Our | Fa-ther's | will,
- 5 Not upon us or ours the | sol - emn | angel || Hath | e - vil | wrought;
- 7 God calls our loved ones, but we | lose not | wholly || What | He has | given;

- 2 Where, in the shadow of a | great af- | fliction, || The | soul sits | dumb.
- 4 Calling to Him the dear ones | whom He | loveth, || Is | mer - cy | still.
- 6 The funeral anthem is a | glad e- | vangeli; || The | good die | not!
- 8 They live on earth in thought and | deed, as | truly || As | in His | heaven.

HYMN CHANT. No. 18.

A. D. H. TROTTE.

MISS CHARLOTTE ELLIOTT.

- 1 My God and Father, | while I | stray, 3 What though in lonely | grief I | sigh
Far from my home, on | life's rough | way, For friends lov'd, no | longer | nigh,
O teach me from my | heart to | say, Submissive still would | I re- | ply,
"Thy | will be | done." "Thy | will be | done."
2 Tho' dark my path, and | sad my | lot, 4 If Thou shouldst call me | to re- | sign
Let me be still, and | murmur | not, What most I prize, it | ne'er was | mine;
But breathe the pray'r di- | vine-ly | taught, I only yield Thee | what was | Thine:
"Thy | will be | done." "Thy | will be | done." || A. | men.

HYMN CHANT. No. 19.

UNKNOWN.

B. U. WATKINS.

- 1 WHILE Eastern sages nightly gazed And, guided by its light on high,
On fields of light di- | vine | fair, O'er mountains, and thro' | rugged | glen,
The wondrous power of God they praised, Still flaming in the azure sky,
Who fix'd those | orbs of | glory | there. It led the | way, the | way | to Bethle- | hem.
The spangled heavens shone all around;
Each star appear'd a | sparkling gem, 3 And when they saw the infant mild
When, bursting from the blue profound, For sinners born to | bleed and | die,
Arose, the | star, the | star of Bethle- | hem! They worship'd there the holy child,
With bended | heads and | streaming eye;
2 These holy men arose that night, They open'd now their treasures great,—
As guided by that | star di- | vine, Incense, and myrrh and | gold and | gem,—
That, pouring floods of glorious light, And pour'd them at Immanuel's feet,
Did all the | host of | heav'n out- | shine, The morning | star, the | star of Bethle- | hem!

INDEX OF FIRST LINES.

The Figures indicate the Numbers of the Hymns.

ABIDE with me, fast falls the even' tide	564	Before Jehovah's awful throne	1
A broken heart, my God, my King	207	Behold the blind their sight receive	236
A charge to keep I have	432	Behold the glories of the Lamb	63
Acquaint thee, O mortal	574	Behold the mountain of the Lord	279
A few more years shall roll	454	Behold the Saviour of mankind	325
Again our earthly cares we leave	58	Behold the sure foundation stone	40
Again the Lord of light and life	59	Behold what wondrous grace	104
Ah, how shall fallen man	457	Be of good cheer, you friends of Jesus	748
Ah, what avails my strife	405	Be still, be still, for all around	29
Alas, and did my Saviour bleed	667	Beyond the smiling and the weeping	586
Alas, what hourly dangers rise	344	Beyond the starry skies	111
All as God wills, who wisely heeds	372	Beyond this land of parting, losing	736
All hail the power of Jesus' name	74	Bleeding hearts, defiled by sin	464
All you that have confessed	433	Blessed fountain, full of grace	113
Almighty Father, gracious Lord	317	Blest are the humble souls that see	228
Almighty Father of mankind	357	Blest are the pure in heart	94
Almighty God, thy word is cast	398	Blest be the dear uniting love	370
Almighty Maker of my frame	185	Blest be the everlasting God	62
Almost persuaded now to believe	727	Blest be the tie that binds	408
Amazing grace, how sweet the sound	634	Blest comforter divine	429
Am I a soldier of the cross	625	Blest feast of love divine	447
And can it be that I	702	Blest hour when mortal man retires	253
And can I yet delay	404	Blest is the man whose	276
And can my heart aspire so high	321	Blest morning whose young dawning	312
And did the holy and the just	297	Blest Saviour, Friend divine	422
And is the gospel peace and love	620	Blow ye the trumpet, blow	151
And is there, Lord, a rest	442	Brethren, while we sojourn here	482
And now, my soul, another year	360	Bright and joyful was the morn	123
Angels, roll the rock away	126	Bright source of everlasting love	37
Another day is past	430	Bright was the guiding star	319
A parting hymn we sing	444	Broad is the road that leads to death	241
Approach, my soul, the mercy seat	354	Burdened with guilt, wouldst thou	613
Arise, ye people, and adore	304	Buried beneath the yielding wave	335
Arm of the Lord, awake, awake	168	By faith in Christ I walk with God	24
Ashamed of Christ, our souls disdain	632	Call Jehovah thy salvation	505
Asleep in Jesus, blessed sleep!	203	Christ, the Lord, is risen to-day	124
As pants the heart for cooling streams	66	Cling to the Mighty One	555
As the sweet flower that scents	238	Come, all ye saints of God	598
A sweetly solemn thought	445	Come, Christian brethren, ere we	245
Awake, and sing the song	79	Come every pious heart	159
Awake, awake the sacred song	45	Come, humble sinner, in whose breast	631
Awake, my soul, and with the sun	19	Come, let us anew	595
Awake, my soul, to joyful lays	617	Come, let us join in songs of praise	63
Awake, my soul, stretch every nerve	42	Come, let us join our cheerful songs	43
Awake, my tongue, thy tribute bring	12	Come, let us join our friends above	640
Awake, thou that sleepest	694	Come, let us join with one accord	362
Awake, ye saints, awake	147	Come, saints, let us join in the praise	573
A way from earth my spirit turns	224	Come, sound his praise abroad	96
Beautiful Zion, built above	735	Come to Calvary's holy mountain	672

O Thou whose own vast temple	41	Silently the shades of evening	495
O turn you, O turn you, for why will ..	693	Silent night, hallowed night	557
Our blest Redeemer, ere he breathed ..	389	Since I can read my title clear	384
Our Father in heaven	695	Since Jesus freely did appear	380
Our Fathers, where are they	453	Sing all ye ransom'd of the Lord	49
Our heavenly Father calls	401	Sinner, hear the call from heaven	622
Our Lord is risen from the dead	192	Sinner, hear the invitation	677
Our Saviour bowed beneath the wave ..	216	Sinners turn; why will you die	649
Our souls are in the Saviour's hand ..	285	Sinners, will you scorn the message ..	673
Our souls by love together knit	275	Sister, thou wast mild and lovely	585
O what amazing words of grace	624	Sleep not, soldier of the cross	484
O when shall I see Jesus	664	Sleep thy last sleep, free from	264
O where shall rest be found	449	Softly now the light of day	462
O worship the King all glorious above	163	Soldiers of Christ, arise	417
Pass me not, O gentle Saviour	716	Songs of praise awoke the morn	119
Peace! the welcome sound proclaim ..	648	Soon may the last glad song arise	231
Peace, troubled soul, whose plaintive ..	556	Sound, sound the truth abroad	660
Plunged in a gulf of dark despair	67	Sovereign ruler of the skies	470
Praise, my soul, the King of heaven	525	Sow in the morn thy seed	440
Praise the God of all creation	679	Stand up, stand up for Jesus	666
Praise the Lord, his glories show	115
